transmedia studies literature and beyond Doing Animal Studies with Androids, Aliens, and Ghosts David P. Rando, 2023-04-06 Exploring what can be learnt when literary critics in the field of animal studies temporarily direct attention away from representations of nonhuman animals in literature and towards liminal figures like androids aliens and ghosts this book examines the boundaries of humanness Simultaneously it encourages the reader both to see nonhuman animals afresh and to reimagine the terms of our relationships with them Examining imaginative texts by writers such as Octavia Butler Philip K Dick Kazuo Ishiguro Jeanette Winterson and J M Coetzee this book looks at depictions of androids that redefine traditional humanist qualities such as hope and uniqueness It examines alien visions that unmask the racist and heteronormative roots of speciesism And it unpacks examples of ghosts and spirits who offer posthumous visions of having been human that decenter anthropocentrism In doing so it leaves open the potential for better relationships and futures with nonhuman animals New Digital Worlds Roopika Risam, 2018-11-15 The emergence of digital humanities has been heralded for its commitment to openness access and the democratizing of knowledge but it raises a number of questions about omissions with respect to race gender sexuality disability and nation Postcolonial digital humanities is one approach to uncovering and remedying inequalities in digital knowledge production which is implicated in an information age politics of knowledge New Digital Worlds traces the formation of postcolonial studies and digital humanities as fields identifying how they can intervene in knowledge production in the digital age Roopika Risam examines the role of colonial violence in the development of digital archives and the possibilities of postcolonial digital archives for resisting this violence Offering a reading of the colonialist dimensions of global organizations for digital humanities research she explores efforts to decenter these institutions by emphasizing the local practices that subtend global formations and pedagogical approaches that support this decentering Last Risam attends to human futures in new digital worlds evaluating both how algorithms and natural language processing software used in digital humanities projects produce universalist notions of the human and also how to resist this phenomenon The Metaphor of the Monster Keith Moser, Karina Zelaya, 2020-10-15 The Metaphor of the Monster offers fresh perspectives and a variety of disciplinary approaches to the ever broadening field of monster studies The eclectic group of contributors to this volume represents areas of study not generally considered under the purview of monster studies including world literature classical studies philosophy ecocriticism animal ethics and gender studies Combining historical overviews with contemporary and global outlooks this volume recontextualizes the monstrous entities that have always haunted the human imagination in the age of the Anthropocene It also invites reflection on new forms of monstrosity in an era epitomized by an unprecedented deluge of mis information Uniting researchers from varied academic backgrounds in a common effort to challenge the monstrous labels that have historically been imposed upon the Other this book endeavors above all to bring the monster out of the shadows and into the light of moral consideration Handbook of Research on Contemporary Storytelling Methods Across New Media and Disciplines Mih?e?, Lorena

Clara, Andreescu, Raluca, Dimitriu, Anda, 2021-01-15 Stories are everywhere around us from the ads on TV or music video clips to the more sophisticated stories told by books or movies Everything comes wrapped in a story and the means employed to weave the narrative thread are just as important as the story itself In this context there is a need to understand the role storytelling plays in contemporary society which has changed drastically in recent decades Modern global society is no longer exclusively dominated by the time tested narrative media such as literature or films because new media such as videogames or social platforms have changed the way we understand create and replicate stories The Handbook of Research on Contemporary Storytelling Methods Across New Media and Disciplines is a comprehensive reference book that provides the relevant theoretical framework that concerns storytelling in modern society as well as the newest and most varied analyses and case studies in the field The chapters of this extensive volume follow the construction and interpretation of stories across a plethora of contemporary media and disciplines By bringing together radical forms of storytelling in traditional disciplines and methods of telling stories across newer media this book intersects themes that include interactive storytelling and narrative theory across advertisements social media and knowledge sharing platforms among others It is targeted towards professionals researchers and students working or studying in the fields of narratology literature media studies marketing and communication anthropology religion or film studies Moreover for interested executives and entrepreneurs or prospective influencers the chapters dedicated to marketing and social media may also provide insights into both the theoretical and the practical aspects of harnessing the power of storytelling in order to create a cohesive and impactful online image

Alina A. and Angeline A. Rubi, 2022-12-04 We live in an era where our minds are manipulated by bad news and negativity which affect our brains our feelings and moods These virulent writings actively disturb our decisions and program us to act from fear By limiting our ability to reason with judgment we often make decisions on autopilot Reading is the best food for the soul It is particularly important to be selective with the type of information that we feed our mind since physical health depends on the food you eat your mental health is damaged if you submit it to toxic readings This book gives you a diversity of topics which have been selected to nourish you

Death of a Discipline Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak, 2023-07-11 Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak is among the foremost figures in the study of world literature and its cultural consequences of the past half century In this book originally published in 2003 she declares the death of comparative literature as we know it and sounds an urgent call for a new comparative literature in which the discipline is reborn one that is not appropriated and determined by the market Spivak examines how comparative literature and world literature in translation have fared in the era of globalization and considers how to protect the multiplicity of languages and literatures at the university She demonstrates why critics interested in social justice should pay close attention to literary form and offers insightful interpretations of classics such as Joseph Conrad s Heart of Darkness and Virginia Woolf s A Room of One s Own Through readings of texts not only in English French and German but also in Arabic and Bengali Spivak practices what she preaches This anniversary edition features a new preface in which Spivak reflects on the fortunes of comparative literature in the intervening years and its tasks today

Technology and Theology William H. U. Anderson, 2021-01-05 Technology is growing at an exponential rate vis vis humanity s ability to control it Moreover the numerous ethical issues that technology raises are also troubling These statements however may be alarmist since Telus would tell us The Future is Friendly The Modernist vision of the future was utopic for instance Star Trek of the 1960s But postmodern views such as are found in Blade Runner 2049 are dystopic Theology is in a unique interdisciplinary position to deal with the many issues pro and con that technology raises Even theologians like Origen in the third century and Aquinas in the thirteenth century made forays into Artificial Intelligence and surrounding issues they just didn t know it at the time Artificial Intelligence AI and Transhumanism raise questions about what it means to be human What is consciousness What is soul What are life and death Can technology really save us and give us eternal life Theology is in a unique position to handle these questions and issues This book also has practical applications in terms of ecclesiology church in the context of the COVID 19 pandemic both in terms of what it means to be a church and in terms of the sacraments or ordinances Is there such a thing as a Virtual Church or must we gather physically to constitute one Are Baptism and Communion legitimate if one is not physically in a church building but are online This book struggles with these and many other questions which will help the scholar or reader make up their own minds however tentatively Reading and Mapping Fiction Sally Bushell,2020-07-02 This book explores the power of the map in fiction and its centrality to meaning from Treasure Island to Winnie the Pooh
