IN THE BEGINNING: Great Opening Lines From Your Favorite Books Hans Bauer, 2023-11-04 Dear Reader IN THE BEGINNING presents the all important first sentence of 1 000 famous and not so famous novels plus a handful of short stories A smorgasbord of popular fiction from around the world ideally these opening lines will have a tremendous attraction for lovers of literature everywhere IN THE BEGINNING is more than just a novelty book Anyone who loves books not only enjoys being reminded of their favorites but also delights in finding a good one they've missed Those who relish reading and writing will savor a collection that brings back memories of beloved books and often the times in which they were read From Virginia Woolf to Tom Wolfe from Edith Wharton to Stephen King from Ernest Hemingway to Gabriel Garcia Marquez masterpieces of world literature are juxtaposed with trendy best sellers romances with westerns classics with cult favorites Some lines are well remembered others rarely recalled still others are brilliant beginnings from relatively obscure books But in every case IN THE BEGINNING confirms how powerful a sentence can be Bumping into a familiar line from a beloved novel fills the reader's mind with imagery The great fish moved silently through the night water propelled by short sweeps of its crescent tale Jaws by Peter Benchley While dazzling openers don't guarantee a worthwhile novel expectations run high when we're introduced with Paint me a railroad station then ten minutes before dark John Cheever's Bullet Park or There were 117 psychoanalysts on the Pan Am flight to Vienna and I'd been psychoanalyzed by at least six of them Fear of Flying by Erica Jong Some books reach their zenith with wonderful first lines that are never matched I had this story from one that had no business to tell it to me or to any other That's our initial meeting with the Tarzan series Conversely some rather mundane opening lines are made better because we know the marvelous story that follows like B Traven's Treasure of the Sierra Madre The bench on which Dobbs was sitting was not so good Perhaps not truly memorable but a truly unforgettable character and Bogie didn't do badly by him either Enjoy Hans Bauer

In the late 1990s and early 2000s Latin American films like Amores perros Y tu mamá también and Cidade de Deus enjoyed an unprecedented level of critical and commercial success in the world market Benefitting from external financial and or creative input these films were considered examples of transnational cinema Through a textual analysis of six filmmakers Alejandro Gonzalez Inarritu Alfonso Cuarón Guillermo del Toro Fernando Meirelles Walter Salles and Juan Jose Campanella this book examines these transnational films and the subsequent wave of commercially successful deterritorialized films by the same directors It argues that although films produced within the structures of the United States film industry may have been commercially successful they are not necessarily apolitical or totally divorced from key notions of national or continental identity Bringing a new perspective to the films of Latin America's transnational auteurs this is a major contribution towards understanding how different genres function across different cultures Shot in Montana Brian D'Ambrosio, 2023-03-21
