The Sabbath World Glimpses Of A Different Order Of Time:

The Sabbath World Judith Shulevitz, 2011-04-05 What is the Sabbath anyway The holy day of rest The first effort to protect the rights of workers A smart way to manage stress in a world in which computers never get turned off and work never comes to an end Or simply an oppressive outmoded rite In The Sabbath World Judith Shulevitz explores the Jewish and Christian day of rest from its origins in the ancient world to its complicated observance in the modern one Braiding ideas together with memories Shulevitz delves into the legends history and philosophy that have grown up around a custom that has lessons for all of us not just the religious The shared day of nonwork has built communities sustained cultures and connected us to the memory of our ancestors and to our better selves but it has also aroused as much resentment as love The Sabbath World tells this surprising story together with an account of Shulevitz's own struggle to keep this difficult rewarding day

The Year of Living Virtuously Teresa Jordan, 2015-11-10 Benjamin Franklin was in his early twenties when he embarked on a bold and arduous project of arriving at moral perfection intending to master the virtues of temperance silence order resolution frugality industry sincerity justice moderation cleanliness tranquility chastity and humility He soon gave up on perfection but continued to believe that these virtues coupled with a generous heart and a bemused acceptance of human frailty laid the foundation for not only a good life but also a workable society Writer and visual artist Teresa Jordan wondered if Franklin's perhaps antiquated notions of virtue might offer guidance to a nation increasingly divided by angry righteousness She decided to try to live his list for a year focusing on each virtue for a week at a time and taking weekends off to attend to the seven deadly sins The journal she kept became this collection of beautifully illustrated essays weaving personal anecdotes with the views of theologians philosophers ethicists evolutionary biologists and a whole range of scholars and scientists within the emerging field of consciousness studies Teresa Jordan offers a wry and intimate journey into a year in midlife devoted to the challenge of trying to live authentically

Defining Sexual

Consent The New York Times Editorial Staff,2018-12-15 Several years before the revelations around sexual harassment and misconduct in Hollywood sparked the metoo movement colleges and universities across America were reeling from a series of assaults that challenged the way sexual consent had been taught The articles collected here detail the evolution of the debate from individual cases that captured national attention to the implementation of California's Affirmative Consent law Beyond highlighting the legal and administrative responses to these cases this book also features stories of the consequences students have faced in their daily lives as they navigate the debate

An Uncommon Guide to Retirement Jeff Haanen,2019-05-07 What am I going to do with my retirement People talk about retirement like it's supposed to be an endless vacation But what if like the majority of those facing retirement you can't afford such a luxury Or what if you just want something more from retirement Some advocate for no retirement at all But you've worked for decades and a rest and reprieve do sound appealing What should you do Does God have a purpose for your retirement Yes He does Learn how to discern what it is by taking an uncommon approach Jeff Haanen looks biblically and practically at the need for rest and purpose in retirement And teaches you how to Take a sabbatical rest in early retirement Listen to God's voice for their calling in retirement Rethink work in retirement Understand family systems and leaving a legacy Planning retirement doesn't have to be distressing Retire in a way that's God honoring purpose filled restful and truly biblical

Working Blessedly Forever, Volume 2 R. Paul Stevens,Lucas Lee,2025-02-27 In volume 1 of Working Blessedly Forever Paul Stevens argues that doing marketplace theology requires head thought heart prayer and hand action Volume 2 takes up the doing part through the experience of multiple practitioners thus providing a practical marketplace theology So under the headings of Doing Theology from Above and Below Dimensions of Marketplace Practice Issues in the Marketplace and Marketplace Practice and the Church these sixteen authors ranging from a machinist to a lawyer elaborate on what they have learned about the integration of faith and work from their actual work life Edited by R Paul Stevens who writes the introduction a short introduction to each session three of the short chapters and the epilogue this book does not cover everything but gives a window into the actual life of a marketplace Christian in their work for God and neighbor Along with volume 1 this puts flesh on the invigorating and empowering truth of biblical marketplace theology

Action Versus Contemplation Jennifer Summit,Blakey Vermeule,2018-03-22 All of humanity's problems stem from man's inability to sit quietly in a room alone Blaise Pascal wrote in 1654 But then there's Walt Whitman in 1856 Whoever you are come forth Or man or woman come forth You must not stay sleeping and dallying there in the house It is truly an ancient debate Is it better to be active or contemplative To do or to think To make an impact or to understand the world more deeply Aristotle argued for contemplation as the highest state of human flourishing But it was through action that his student Alexander the Great conquered the known world Which should we aim at Centuries later this argument underlies a surprising number of the questions we face in contemporary life Should students study the humanities or train for a job Should adults work for money or for meaning And in tumultuous times should any of us sit on the sidelines pondering great books or throw ourselves into protests and petition drives With Action versus Contemplation Jennifer Summit and Blakey Vermeule address the question in a refreshingly unexpected way by refusing to take sides Rather they argue for a rethinking of the very opposition The active and the contemplative can and should be vibrantly alive in each of us fused rather than sundered Writing in a personable accessible style Summit and Vermeule guide readers through the long history of this debate from Plato to Pixar drawing compelling connections to the questions and problems of today Rather than playing one against the other they argue we can discover how the two can nourish invigorate and give meaning to each other as they have for the many writers artists and thinkers past and present whose examples give the book its rich lively texture of interplay and reference This is not a self help book It won't give you instructions on how to live your life Instead it will do something better it will remind you of the richness of a life that embraces action and contemplation company and solitude living in the moment and planning for the future Which is better Readers of this book will discover the answer both

Feminism and the Cinema of Experience

Lori Jo Marso, 2024-11-01 From popular films like Greta Gerwig's Barbie 2023 to Chantal Akerman's avant garde classic Jeanne Dielman 1975 feminist cinema can provoke discomfort Ambivalence stasis horror cringe these and other affects refuse the resolution of feeling good or bad leaving viewers questioning and disoriented In Feminism and the Cinema of Experience Lori Jo Marso examines how filmmakers scramble our senses to open up space for encountering and examining the political conditions of patriarchy racism and existential anxiety Building on Akerman's cinematic lexicon and Simone de Beauvoir's phenomenological attention to the lives of girls and women Marso analyzes film and television by directors ranging from Akerman Gerwig Mati Diop Catherine Breillat and Joey Soloway to Emerald Fennell Michaela Coel Audrey Diwan Alice Diop and Julia Ducournau Through their innovative and intentional uses of camera sound editing and new forms of narrative these directors use discomfort in order to invite viewers to feel like feminists and to sense the possibility of freedom

My Jewish Year Abigail Pogrebin, 2017-03-14 In the tradition of The Year of Living Biblically by A J Jacobs and Walking the Bible A Journey by Land Through the Five Books of Moses by Bruce Feiler comes Abigail Pogrebin's My Jewish Year a lively chronicle of the author's journey into the spiritual heart of Judaism Although she grew up following some holiday rituals Pogrebin realized how little she knew about their foundational purpose and contemporary relevance she wanted to understand what had kept these holidays alive and vibrant some for thousands of years Her curiosity led her to embark on an entire year of intensive research observation and writing about the milestones on the religious calendar Whether in search of a roadmap for Jewish life or a challenging probe into the architecture of Jewish tradition readers will be captivated educated and inspired by Abigail Pogrebin's My Jewish Year Can't Even Anne Helen Petersen, 2020 An incendiary examination of burnout in millennials the cultural shifts that got us here the pressures that sustain it and the need for drastic change

Lectio Divina as Contemplative Pedagogy Mary Keator, 2017-12-14 Offering an original application of the ancient monastic practice of lectio divina to the humanities this book demonstrates the need for further emphasis on deep reading reflection and contemplation in contemporary university classrooms Each chapter provides readers with an historical overview of the four movements of this monastic method lectio reading meditatio interpreting oratio responding and contemplatio experiencing wisdom and suggests ways to incorporate these practices in humanities courses Keator demonstrates that the lectio divina method is a viable pedagogical tool to guide students slowly and methodically through literary texts and into a subjective experience of wisdom and meaning Finishing in Architecture Paul Emmons, Marcia Feuerstein, Negar Goljan, 2025-06-30 Finishing in Architecture Polishing Completing Ending explores the topic of finishing and the fascinating physical and metaphysical implications of its various conceptions in architecture Finishing is essential to all human practices and concepts of time yet simultaneously it is largely impossible to identify an entirely finished state of being As mortals we organize our worlds into beginnings and endings starts and finishes Architecture's temporality however may contain something of both the mortal and immortal within it a desire for permanence combined with lamentation over its impossibility While many approaches to finishing construct two opposed ontological conditions the finished and the unfinished this dualistic ploy neglects the complexity of architectural practice cultural reception and historiographic shifts in semiotics during the lifetime of a building More nuanced approaches are examined in this collection of 38 essays and creative works from a diverse group of scholars architects and artists who conceptualize finishing not simply as a final outcome but as an extended action a mood that presumes an end is near all the while working continuously toward but never achieving completion It is here that the concept of finishing is not a state of being but a state of becoming as an active thickening of time when the end is thought to be imminent but not yet attained Finishing more than a final endpoint is a void state that is extended through efforts framing its territory while never quite containing it From the material to the procedural and the conceptual this volume explores the practices of finishing in architecture within three currents surfaces projects and most broadly architectural times It will be of interest to students and instructors of architecture and design architectural historians and other scholars Socio-Anthropological Approaches to Religion David W. Kim, Duncan Wright, 2024-02-14 Socio Anthropological Approaches to Religion Environmental Hope interprets the fundamental functions of spirituality through the theories and practices of hope and understanding the futuristic aspiration of new religious movements The book portrays a neutral notion of hope that can be either religious or humanistic in the face of the suffering or despair of present reality The concept of hope or hopelessness is demonstrated in each chapter under the global circumstance of health risk Part One represents the various theories of hope in Christian history ecology and climate the

Sabbath and surveillance and the triune God The insecure situation that creates the expectation of hope is demonstrated in Part Two where the case studies of terrorist attacks immigration volunteering behavior religious education and medieval Islamic tradition indicate social unbalance The last section illustrates the cultural anthropology of hope through the activities of different native new religious movements including the Moonies Unification movement Yoruba Nigerian indigenous spirituality and Cosmovisions of Sepik New Guinea This book examines hope as a crucial element of human s internal healing beyond medical technology

Slow Media Jennifer Rauch,2018-09-11 Slow Media examines innovative theories and practices that connect mediated life with social and environmental sustainability including mindful use of media green media consumption and other new and compelling perspectives on media s socio cultural impact Jennifer Rauch reveals the surprising connections between human well being the natural world and everyday media choices

Creation and Religious Pluralism David Cheetham,2020-08-21 In the well worn debates about religious pluralism and the theology of religions there have been many different rubrics used to account for comprehend or engage with the religious other This book is chiefly a work of Christian theology and seeks to bring the doctrine of creation and the theology of religions into dialogue and in so doing it comes at things from a different direction than other works It contains an extensive exploration of the doctrine of creation and asks how it might intervene distinctively in these discourses to produce a new conceptual and practical topography It will consider inter religious engagement from the perspective of the doctrine of creatio ex nihilo that forms the dominant view in the Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions The book pays close consideration to anthropology i e creaturehood the quotidian and wisdom the idea of sabbath human action and work and vivifying the immanent through a consideration of some representative phenomenologists The book will develop these ideas in a more practical direction by considering sacraments and rituals in the public sphere as well as attempting to describe the kind of creational politics that might bring traditions into dialogue Whilst these themes challenge more conventional ways of considering relations between religions such themes because they are different from concerns commonly found in the literature can also be profitably engaged with across the spectrum of opinion i e exclusivist or pluralist etc Thus whilst the position adopted in this work is creatio ex nihilo part of the motivation is to review the ways in which this focus helps to broaden rather than limit the discussion

Living Into Focus Arthur Boers,2012 A veteran pastor and teacher offers a critical look at the isolating effects of modern life helping readers make their lives more focused and rewarding

Returning to Reality Paul Tyson,2013-01-31 We are becoming a nation of superficial and distracted consumers of instant messages and images a state of being which does not aid engagement in religious and other deep commitments that require a sustained level of reflection and contemplation In his thought provoking work Phillip M Thompson analyses the shadow elements of technology nuclear armaments the bio engineering of humans and the distancing of humanity from the natural world through the fascinating insights of the spiritual writer and monk Thomas Merton 1915 1968 Merton s work offers an important critique and healing resource for contemporary technology saturated culture through constructive recommendations which include a balanced approach to work the careful management of technology and an appreciation of the recuperative aspects of nature While understanding the positive influences of technology Merton urges us not be naively optimistic about its benefits but to consider the threat it poses to a life of humanity and spiritual connection A consideration of the profound issues discussed in this book will interest any reader concerned with the intersection between spirituality and technology and how to maintain spiritual integrity in a technological world Returning to Reality Phillip M. Thompson, 2012-11-14 This book synthesizes the diverse reflections on technology by monk and spiritual writer Thomas Merton to develop a compelling contemplative critique of the threats and challenges of nuclear war communication technologies and biotechnologies that may alter what it means to be human At the core of his critique Merton opposes a technological mentality that favors processes of efficiency and utility at the expense of our ultimate purpose a quest for the wisdom to guide us to the divine source of our being and reality To counter this modern idolatry Merton's insights offer a path of reflection balance and community More specifically Merton offers some constructive approaches and healing possibilities through a balanced approach to work a careful and intentional managing of technology and an accessing of the recuperative dimensions of nature In its conclusion the book brings the insights of these chapters together for a final reflection on how to maintain our humanity and our spiritual integrity in a technological world Here All Along Sarah Hurwitz, 2019-09-03 A renowned political speechwriter rediscovers Judaism finding timeless wisdom and spiritual connection in its age old practices and traditions Sarah Hurwitz was Michelle Obama's head speechwriter and with this book she becomes Judaism's speechwriter Adam Grant New York Times bestselling author of Give and Take Originals and co author of Option B After a decade as a political speechwriter serving as head speechwriter for First Lady Michelle Obama a senior speechwriter for President Barack Obama and chief speechwriter for Hillary Clinton on her 2008 presidential campaign Sarah Hurwitz decided to apply her skills as a communicator to writing a book about Judaism And no one is more surprised than she is Hurwitz was the quintessential lapsed Jew until at age thirty six after a tough breakup she happened upon an advertisement for an introductory class on Judaism She attended on a whim but was blown away by what she found beautiful rituals helpful guidance on living an ethical life conceptions of God beyond the judgy bearded man in the sky none of which she had learned in Hebrew school or during the two synagogue services she grudgingly attended each year That class led to a years long journey during which Hurwitz visited the offices of rabbis attended Jewish meditation retreats sat at the Shabbat tables of Orthodox families and read hundreds of books about Judaism all in dogged pursuit of answers to her biggest questions What she found transformed her life and she wondered How could there be such a gap between the richness of what Judaism offers and the way so many Jews like her understand and experience it Sarah Hurwitz is on a mission to close this gap by sharing the profound insights she discovered on everything from Jewish holidays ethics and prayer to Jewish conceptions of God death and social justice In this entertaining and accessible book she shows us why Judaism matters and how its message is more relevant than ever and she inspires Jews to do the learning questioning and debating required to make this religion their own Searching for meaning in the ancient scripture and traditions of Judaism Sarah Hurwitz takes us along on an enriching journey of discovery In Here All Along she explores her birthright as a Jew and finds timeless and valuable life lessons David Axelrod director of the University of Chicago Institute of Politics and former senior advisor to President Barack Obama
