The Ruling Elite Of Singapore Networks Of Power And Influence:

The Ruling Elite of Singapore Michael D. Barr, 2014-01-17 Michael Barr explores the complex and covert networks of power at work in one of the world's most prosperous countries the city state of Singapore He argues that the contemporary networks of power are a deliberate project initiated and managed by Lee Kuan Yew former prime minister and Singapore's founding father designed to empower himself and his family Barr identifies the crucial institutions of power including the country's sovereign wealth funds and the government linked companies together with five critical features that form the key to understanding the nature of the networks He provides an assessment of possible shifts of power within the elite in the wake of Lee Kuan Yew's son Lee Hsien Loong assuming power and considers the possibility of a more fundamental democratic shift in Singapore's political system

The First Wave Loke Hoe Yeong, 2019-09-30 Based on extensive interviews and archival material The First Wave tells the story of the opposition in Singapore in its critical first thirty years in Parliament Democratisation has been described to occur in waves The first wave of a democratic awakening in post independence Singapore began with J B Jeyaretnam's victory in the Anson by election of 1981 That built up to the 1984 general election the first of many to be called a watershed in which Chiam See Tong was also elected in Potong Pasir After their successes in 1991 the opposition began dreaming of forming the government But their euphoria was short lived Serious fault lines in the leading Singapore Democratic Party SDP rose to the surface almost immediately after the opposition victories of 1991 and the party was wiped out of Parliament by 1997 The opposition spent the next decade experimenting with coalition arrangements to work their way back to victory

Exceptionalism Lars Jensen, Kristín Loftsdóttir, 2021-09-27 This volume crucially provides an analytical and comparative approach investigating the meaning and uses of the concept of exceptionalism while demonstrating the ways in which it manifests itself in different historical and geographical settings Exceptionalism offers comparative case studies from different parts of the world showcasing the way in which exceptionalism has come to occupy an important narrative position in relation to different nation states including the United States the United Kingdom the Nordic countries various European nations and countries in Latin America Africa and Asia An introduction to and overview of a term that has come to define the past and present identity of many nations this book will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology geography cultural studies and politics

The Politics of the Asia-Pacific Mark S. Williams, 2022-01-10 This book introduces readers to the deep political tensions in the Asia Pacific and offers classroom simulations designed to encourage students to delve deeper into the issues and dynamics of the region

Equity in Excellence Siao See Teng, Maria Manzon, Kenneth K. Poon, 2018-12-20 This book offers a comprehensive picture of high performing East Asian education systems beyond their outstanding achievements in international assessments such as PISA and TIMSS Situating excellence within discussions of equity it contextualises the conceptions and pursuits of equity amid the development of education systems policy and curricula in selected East Asian societies While parallels could be observed across the systems including high stakes assessment culture increasing credentialism and high investment of family educational resources there are also divergences in approaches and outcomes relating to equity policies and practices In light of the challenges presented by low fertility rates ageing populations migration and the economic demands of the 21st century the book addresses these systems attempts to cater to further diversified student populations and maintain equity in excellence As the international community relentlessly seeks to enhance equity in education there is much these East Asian education systems can share This book has appeal internationally to researchers policymakers educators and anyone interested in East Asian education and equity

Capital Choices Juergen Braunstein, 2022-02-01 Sovereign wealth funds are state controlled pools of capital that hold financial and real assets including shares of state enterprises and manage them to grow the nation's base of sovereign wealth The dramatic rise of sovereign wealth funds SWFs in both number and size this group is now larger than the size of global private equity and hedge funds combined and the fact that most are located in non OECD countries has raised concern about the direction of capitalism Yet SWFs are not a homogenous group of actors Why do some countries with large current account surpluses notably China create SWFs while others such as Switzerland and Germany do not Why do other countries with no macroeconomic justification such as Senegal and Turkey create SWFs And why do countries with similar macroeconomic features such as Kuwait and Qatar or Singapore and Hong Kong choose different types of SWFs Capital Choices analyzes the creation of different SWFs from a comparative political economy perspective arguing that different state society structures at the sectoral level are the drivers for SWF variation Juergen Braunstein focuses on the early formation period of SWFs a critical but little understood area given the high levels of political sensitivity and lack of transparency that surround SWF creation Braunstein s novel analytical framework provides practical lessons for the business and finance organizations and policymakers of countries that have created or are planning to create SWFs Routledge

International Handbook of Schools and Schooling in Asia Kerry J. Kennedy, John Chi-Kin Lee, 2018-05-11 This comprehensive handbook is the ultimate reference work providing authoritative and international overviews of all aspects of schools and schooling in Asia Split into 19 sections it covers curriculum learning and assessment private supplementary tutoring special education gender issues ethnic minority education and LGBTQI students in Asian schools The volume displays the current state of the scholarship for schools and schooling in Asia including emerging controversial and cutting edge contributions using a thematic approach The content offers a broad sweep of the region with a focus on theoretical cultural and political issues as well as identifying educational issues and priorities such as curriculum assessment teacher education school leadership etc all of which impact students and learning in multiple ways The Routledge International Handbook of Schools and Schooling in Asia brings together experts in each area to contribute their knowledge providing a multidimensional and rich view of the issues confronting the region s school and education systems Chapters 34 35 36 37 and 38 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Hard Choices Donald Low, 2014-04-22 Singapore is changing The consensus that the PAP government has constructed and maintained over five decades is fraying The assumptions that underpin Singaporean exceptionalism are no longer accepted as easily and readily as before Among these are the ideas that the country is uniquely vulnerable that this vulnerability limits its policy and political options that good governance demands a degree of political consensus that ordinary democratic arrangements cannot produce and that the country s success requires a competitive meritocracy accompanied by relatively little income or wealth redistribution But the policy and political conundrums that Singapore faces today are complex and defy easy answers Confronted with a political landscape that is likely to become more contested how should the government respond What reforms should it pursue This collection of essays suggests that a far reaching and radical rethinking of the country s policies and institutions is necessary even if it weakens the very consensus that enabled Singapore to succeed in its first fifty years Culture, Religion and Conflict in Muslim Southeast Asia Joseph A. Camilleri, Sven Schottmann, 2013 By examining the sometimes surprising and unexpected roles that culture and religion have played in mitigating or exacerbating conflicts this book explores the cultural repertoires from which Southeast Asian political actors have drawn to negotiate the pluralism that has so long been characteristic of the region Focusing on the dynamics of identity politics and the range of responses to the socio political challenges of religious and ethnic pluralism the authors assembled in this book illuminate the principal regional discourses that attempt to make sense of conflict and tensions They examine local notions of dialogue reconciliation civility and conflict resolution and show how varying interpretations of these terms have informed the responses of different social actors across Southeast Asia to the challenges of conflict culture and religion The book demonstrates how stumbling blocks to dialogue and reconciliation can and have been overcome in different parts of Southeast Asia and identifies a range of actors who might be well placed to make useful contributions propose remedies and initiate action towards negotiating the region's pluralism This book provides a much needed regional and comparative analysis that makes a significant contribution to a better understanding of the interfaces between region and politics in Southeast Asia

Heritage, Contested Sites, and Borders of Memory in the Asia Pacific, 2023-10-09 Contests over heritage in Asia are intensifying and reflect the growing prominence of political and social disputes over historical narratives shaping heritage sites and practices and the meanings attached to them These contests emphasize that heritage is a means of narrating the past that demarcates constitutes produces and polices political and social borders in the present In its spaces varied intersections of actors networks and scales of governance interact negotiate and compete resulting in heritage sites that are cut through by borders of memory This volume edited by Edward Boyle and Steven Ivings and with contributions from scholars across the humanities history social sciences and Asian studies interrogates how particular actors and narratives make heritage and how borders of memory shape the sites they produce

In the Dragon's Shadow Sebastian Strangio, 2020-08-07 A timely look at the impact of China's booming emergence on the countries of Southeast Asia Today Southeast Asia stands uniquely exposed to the waxing power of the new China Three of its nations border China and five are directly impacted by its claims over the South China Sea All dwell in the lengthening shadow of its influence economic political military and cultural As China seeks to restore its former status as Asia's preeminent power the countries of Southeast Asia face an increasingly stark choice flourish within Beijing's orbit or languish outside of it Meanwhile as rival powers including the United States take concerted action to curb Chinese ambitions the region has emerged as an arena of heated strategic competition Drawing on more than a decade of on the ground experience Sebastian Strangio explores the impacts of China's rise on Southeast Asia the varied ways in which the countries of the region are responding and what it might mean for the future balance of power in the Indo Pacific

The British Official Film in South-East Asia Ian Aitken, 2016-11-22 This book explores the ways in which the British official film was used in Malaya Malaysia Singapore and Hong Kong from 1945 to the 1970s Aitken uncovers how the British official film and British official information agencies adapted to the epochal contexts of the Cold War and end of empire In addition to an extensive introduction which touches on a number of critical issues related to the post war British official film the book provides an account of how the tradition of film making associated with the British documentary film movement spread into the region during the post war period and how that tradition was contested by a Colonial Office tradition of film making The volume concludes by covering the rise of television in the region within the context of developing post colonial authoritarian states in Singapore and Malaysia and the continuation of colonial authoritarianism in Hong Kong

Civic Nationalisms in Global Perspective Jasper Trautsch, 2019-03-14 Recent events around the globe have cast doubt on the assumption that as a result of increasing cross border migrations and global interdependencies nation states are becoming more inclusive ethnic forms of identification more and more a thing of the past and processes of supranational integration progressively more acceptable Xenophobic forms of nationalism have once again been on the rise as became strikingly visible through the results of the Brexit referendum the election of Donald Trump and the inclusion of the Lega Nord in the Italian government It is timely therefore to inquire how multiethnic forms of nationalism can be re promoted and for this purpose to re investigate the concept of civic nationalism This book assembles case studies that analyse the historical practices of civic or quasi civic nationalisms from around the world By allowing for global comparisons the collection of articles seeks to shed new light on pressing questions faced by nation states around the world today Are truly civic nationalisms even possible Which strategies have multiethnic nation states pursued in the past to foster national sentiment How can nation states generate social solidarity without resorting to primordialism Can the historical example of civic or quasi civic nation states offer useful lessons to contemporary nation states for successfully integrating immigrants

Straight nation Pavan Mano, 2025-03-04 Straight nation dissects the intricacies of nationalism in postcolonial Singapore and its entanglements with the governance of sexuality Rejecting the romanticization of the nation as a pure bastion of belonging the book theorizes nationalism as a force obsessed with continually generating threats and excavates the alliance it has struck up with heteronormativity to produce a series of minoritized figures that contemporary identity claims can neither handle nor dispel Through an elegant exploration of a vast array of texts and cultural artifacts the book argues that the relationship between sexuality and nation is instrumental in producing multiple queered figures who are displaced from the national imaginary Dwelling on what is often taken as conventional wisdom Straight nation demonstrates how queerness can be xenologized under the sign of the postcolonial nation and turned into a technology of race gender and class in the right contexts The book delivers a sharp riposte to narrow identity politics and outlines in detail how the governance of sexual expression functions as a powerful mechanism to shape the lives of many including as unlikely as it may seem heterosexual people In the face of the far reaching effects of heteronormativity coupled with nationalism Straight nation presents a compelling argument for an expansive non identarian political critique capable of dismantling the deeply entrenched force of heteronormativity in postcolonial Singapore and the detritus of nationalism along with it

The Social Construction of Adolescence in Contemporaneity Marcelo S. International Higher Education Hubs in the Global Education Industry Marvin Erfurth, 2022 Education hubs are a recent phenomenon in higher education systems of predominantly Asian countries to innovate local systems through the expertise of foreign actors particularly from English speaking countries To understand some of the phenomenon s implications on international higher education this empirical study compares attempts to create education hubs in Singapore and the United Arab Emirates First the book explores the analytical potential of current approaches to study the phenomenon and second it investigates how education hubs change policy and governance in the higher education systems of Singapore and the United Arab Emirates The book sheds light on how education hubs lead to the involvement of Global Education Industry actors in local systems and how the phenomenon creates new dynamics for policy making and research Marvin Erfurth ist Wissenschaftlicher Mitarbeiter an der Westf lischen Wilhelms Universit t M nster Arbeitsschwerpunkte Internationale und Vergleichende Erziehungswissenschaft Internationale Bildungspolitik Hochschulforschung Bildungs konomie

Colonial Documentary Film in South and South-East Asia

Ian Aitken,2016-12-05 Based on rare archival documents and films this anthology is the first to focus primarily on the use of official and colonial documentary films in the South and South East Asian regions Drawing together a range of international scholars the book sheds new light on historical theoretical and empirical issues pertaining to the documentary film in order to better comprehend the significant transformations of the form in the colonial late colonial and immediate post colonial period Covering diverse geographical and colonial contexts in countries like Singapore Malaysia the Philippines and Hong Kong and focusing on under researched or little known films it demonstrate the complex set of relations between the colonisers and the colonised throughout the region

Small Powers and Trading Security Michael Intal

Magcamit,2016-12-08 This book examines why and how small powers link their security interests and trade agendas and how security threats influence the facilitation and outcome of their trade activities In doing so it analyses the increasingly complex connections between trade and security demonstrating how these linkages affect the overall security of four small but important states in East Asia Focusing on the role of high levels of internal and external insecurities marginal geo economic size and peripheral geopolitical position and multidimensional and multidirectional security contexts and threats the author concludes that for every security enhancement that a linkage creates a consequent security risk is generated In other words Taiwan Singapore Malaysia and the Philippines are effectively trading their security This innovative book will appeal to political scientists economists and security and trade experts
