The Sands of Dunkirk Richard Collier, 2022-10-25 Part of the SECOND WORLD WAR VOICES series with a new introduction by bestselling historian James Holland and in partnership with the podcast We Have Ways of Making You Talk presented by comedian Al Murray and James Holland May 1940 In the face of a lightning German advance the British Army found themselves stunned broken beaten their backs truly against the wall on the sands of the north French coast And yet it was on the beaches of Dunkirk that the seeds of a remarkable victory were sown The evacuation of over three hundred thousand men in ships of all sizes was a logistical feat which has never been seen before or since This vivid visceral story takes you inside the making of a miracle the story of eight frantic days as the net tightened around the beleaguered troops told from all sides as the enemy draws closer and the bombardment intensifies in the words of those who were there It is impossible to get closer to experiencing this legendary action
