

Ortega Y Gasset

THE REVOLT OF THE MASSES

The author of this book is Professor of Philosophy at the University of Madrid, editor of the Revista de Occidente, and one of the foremost leaders of the new Republic in Spain. He has written many works on philosophy, literature and art, making a specialty of the many fields. This book is a study of the revolt of the oppressed mass, of whatever social order, against the authority of the ruling minority in every sphere of human activity. This, the author believes, is the most formidable fact of our epoch. One of the most interesting subjects of the hour is the analysis of the so-called disintegration of Europe.
