The Other Woman A Story Of Menage A Trois:

The Erotic Thriller in Contemporary Cinema Linda Ruth Williams, 2005 This bold and original book examines in detail a relatively new genre of film the erotic thriller Linda Ruth Williams traces the genre's exploitation of pornography and noir discusses mainstream stars including Michael Douglas and Sharon Stone as well as genre branded direct to video stars charts the work of key producers and directors and considers home videos as a distinct form of viewing pleasure She maps the history of the genre analyzing hundreds of movies from blockbusters such as Basic Instinct Fatal Attraction and In the Cut to straight to video film titles such as Carnal Crimes Sins of Desire and Night Eyes Williams's witty and illuminating readings tell the story of this sensational genre and contribute to the analysis of mainstream screen sex and its censorship at the beginning of the 21st century She shows that as the erotic thriller plays out the sexual fantasies of contemporary America it also provides a vehicle for marketing those fantasies globally

The New African Diaspora Isidore Okpewho, Nkiru Nzegwu, 2009-08-26 The New York Times reports that since 1990 more Africans have voluntarily relocated to the United States and Canada than had been forcibly brought here before the slave trade ended in 1807 The key reason for these migrations has been the collapse of social political economic and educational structures in their home countries which has driven Africans to seek security and self realization in the West This lively and timely collection of essays takes a look at the new immigrant experience It traces the immigrants progress from expatriation to arrival and covers the successes as well as problems they have encountered as they establish their lives in a new country The contributors most immigrants themselves use their firsthand experiences to add clarity honesty and sensitivity to their discussions of the new African diaspora

Archibald MacLeish Scott Donaldson,2016-06-28 Poet lawyer Librarian of Congress statesman and professor MacLeish 1892 1982 revived the Homeric ideal of a poet as a man in the world In this authorized and idealized biography his only flaws are a demanding nature many discreet infidelities and lack of interest in his children Fortunately Donaldson is as successful in celebrating MacLeish's strengths as he has been in tracing the demons that destroyed Cheever, Fitzgerald and Hemingway. Born into a wealthy Illinois family, MacLeish attended Yale and Harvard Law, married his childhood sweetheart and moved to Paris where he joined the circle around Joyce and Hemingway, his lifelong friend and sustained by family resources devoted himself to poetry. Returning to N.Y.C. he spent the 30s editing and writing for Fortune magazine while producing radio and stage plays starring the young Orson Welles that expressed his liberal politics. In the 40s MacLeish served as the first Librarian of Congress, then as Secretary of State for Cultural Affairs and after helping to write the preamble to the UN Charter worked for UNESCO. Even after accepting a Harvard professorship in 1946 he remained a mediator between the worlds of art and of public life, urging the release of Ezra Pound from his mental asylum and publishing the day after the first moon landing a celebratory poem on the front page of The New York Times. MacLeish's last years were spent lecturing, traveling, gathering prizes, entertaining friends including Richard Burton and Liz Taylor and writing dramas as well as private but unrevealing poems about old age, his various affairs and the bliss he found in his marriage. For such a long and spectacular life, this is a spare and unpretentious biography like MacLeish's verse. Donaldson is informed, respectful and comfortable with the many different roles his subject played. He tastefully draws on unpublished verse to illuminate the shadows but mostly like MacLeish himself stays in the light. Library Journal Forever by Your Side (Willamette Brides Book #3) Tracie Peterson, 2020-10-06 After years of schooling on the East Coast, Constance Browning returns to Oregon and the reservation where she grew up with her missionary parents. She is accompanied by Thomas Lowell, her best friend and colleague, and together they embark on a project to catalogue the native peoples of Oregon for the Bureau of American Ethnology. But Connie and Tom have another purpose: to prove her parents are not involved in a secret conspiracy to goad the oppressed tribes into a doomed war. Connie finds life on the reservation much bleaker than she remembered and she is glad to have Tom by her side. But she also becomes reacquainted with Clint Singleton, the government agent on whom she had a crush as a girl. Now that she's back, Clint finally seems interested in her, but Connie is no longer sure of her feelings. As tensions on the reservation rise and war looms ever closer, Connie and Tom search for whoever is truly behind the uprising. With danger unfolding amid shocking revelations, Connie will also have a revelation of the heart. Women of the Left Bank Shari Benstock, 1986 Offers profiles of British and American expatriate women in Paris including Gertrude Stein, Djuna Barnes, H.D., Katherine Anne Porter and Edith Wharton. The Women Who Make History Collection [3-Book Boxed Set] Rachel Ignotofsky, 2022-09 For the first time the New York Times bestseller Women in Science, Women in Sports and Women in Art are collected in a gorgeous boxed set offering stunningly illustrated profiles of 150 pioneering female scientists, athletes and artists. Women in Science features 50 illustrated portraits of women in STEM from ancient times to the modern world.
