

An abstract painting with a complex, layered composition. The dominant colors are various shades of green and blue, with prominent diagonal strokes of brown and ochre. The texture is visible, suggesting thick application of paint or a mixed-media technique. The overall effect is one of dynamic energy and organic form.

Towner,Jody C Baumgartner,2021-10-18 Although many developments surrounding the Internet campaign are now considered to be standard fare there were a number of newer developments in 2020 Drawing on original research conducted by leading experts The Internet and the 2020 Campaign attempts to cover these developments in a comprehensive fashion How are campaigns making use of the Internet to organize and mobilize their ground game To communicate their message How are citizens making use of online sources to become informed follow campaigns participate and more and to what effect How has the Internet affected developments in media reporting both traditional and non traditional of the campaign What other messages were available online and what effects did these messages have had on citizens attitudes and vote choice The book examines these questions in an attempt to summarize the 2020 online campaign

Overcoming Orientalism Tamara Sonn,2021-05-28 Since John Esposito published his first book nearly 40 years ago he has been guiding readers beyond misleading and dangerous stereotypes of Muslims The essays in this volume highlight the contributions of scholars from a variety of disciplines who like Esposito present Islam as a multi faceted and dynamic tradition embraced by communities in globally interconnected but substantially diverse contexts over the centuries

The Critical Study of Non-Religion Christopher R. Cotter,2020-07-09 This book acts as a bridge between the critical study of religion and empirical studies of religion in the real world Chris Cotter presents a concise and up to date critical survey of research on non religion in the UK and beyond before presenting the results of extensive research in Edinburgh s Southside which blurs the boundary between religion and non religion In doing so Cotter demonstrates that these are dynamic subject positions and phenomena can occupy both at the same time or neither depending on who is doing the positioning and what issues are at stake This book details an approach that avoids constructing religion as in some way unique whilst also fully incorporating non religious subject positions into religious studies It provides a rich engagement with a wide variety of theoretical material rooted in empirical data which will be essential reading for those interested in critical sociological and anthropological study of the contemporary non religious landscape

Sociology David M. Newman,2025-05-14 Using vivid prose current examples and fresh data the Fifteenth Edition of Sociology Exploring the Architecture of Everyday Life presents a unique and thought provoking overview of how society is constructed and experienced Author David M Newman shows students how to see the unfamiliar in the familiar to step back and see organization and predictability in their take for granted personal experiences With his approachable writing style and lively anecdotes Newman s goal from the first edition has been the same to write a textbook that reads like a real book Many adopters of this book are fans of Peter Berger s classic works which helped introduce the idea of social constructionism to sociology Newman uses the metaphors of architecture and construction to help students understand that society is not something that exists out there independently of themselves it is a human creation that is planned maintained or altered by individuals

Staging Decadence Adam Alston,2023-09-07 Winner of the 2024 TaPRA David Bradby Monograph Prize How is decadence being staged today as a practice issue pejorative and as a site of pleasure Where might we find it why might we look for it and who is decadence for This book is the first monographic study of decadence in theatre and performance Adam Alston makes a passionate case for the contemporary relevance of decadence in the thick of a resurgent culture war by focusing on its antithetical relationship to capitalist led growth progress and intensified productivity He argues that the qualities used to disparage the study and practice of theatre and performance are the very things we should embrace in celebrating their value namely their spectacular uselessness wastefulness outmodedness and abundant potential for producing forms of creativity that flow away from the ends and excesses of capitalism Alston covers an eclectic range of examples by Julia Bardsley UK Hasard Le Sin Finland jaamil olawale kosoko USA Toco Nikaido Japan Martin O'Brien UK Toshiki Okada Japan Marcel I Ant nez Roca Spain Normandy Sherwood USA The Uhuruverse USA Nia O Witherspoon USA and Wunderbaum Netherlands Expect ruminations on monstrous scenographies catatonic choreographies turbo charged freneticism visions of the apocalypse and what might lie in its wake Virtual Dark Tourism Kathryn N.
