Cragun,2020-11-12 This handbook explores contemporary Mormonism within a global context The authors provide a nuanced picture of a historically American religion in the throes of the same kinds of global change that virtually every conservative faith tradition faces today They explain where and how the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints has penetrated national and cultural boundaries in Latin America Oceania Europe Asia and Africa as well as in North America beyond the borders of Mormon Utah They also address numerous concerns within a multinational multicultural church What does it mean to be a Latter day Saint in different world regions What is the faith s appeal to converts in these places What are the peculiar problems for members who must manage Mormon identities in conjunction with their different national cultural and ethnic identities How are leaders dealing with such issues as the status of women in a patriarchal church the treatment of LGBTQ members increasing disaffiliation of young people and decreasing growth rates in North and Latin America while sustaining increasing growth in parts of Asia and Africa Mormonism and the Emotions Mauro Properzi,2015-05-21 Mormonism and the Emotions An Analysis of LDS Scriptural Texts is an introductory Latterday Saint LDS theology of emotion that is both canonically based and scientifically informed It highlights three widely accepted characteristics of emotion that emerge from scientific perspectives namely the necessity of cognition for its emergence the personal responsibility attached to its manifestations and its instrumentality in facilitating various processes of human development and experience In analyzing the basic theological structure of Mormonism and its unique canonical texts the objective is to determine the extent to which LDS theology is compatible with this three fold definition of emotion At this basic level of explanation the conclusion is that science and Mormon theology undoubtedly share a common perspective The textual investigation focuses on unique Mormon scriptures and on their descriptions of six common emotions hope fear joy sorrow love and hate For each of these emotional phenomena the extensive report of textual references consistently confirms an implied presence of the outlined three fold model of emotion Thus the evidence points to the presence of an underlying folk model of emotion in the text that broadly matches scientific definitions Additionally the theological examination is enlarged with a particular focus on the Mormon theology of atonement which is shown to play a significant role in LDS understandings of emotions A broad exploration of such areas as epistemology cosmology soteriology and the theological anthropology of Mormonism further contextualizes the analysis and roots it in the LDS theological worldview The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion Lewis Ray

Standing Apart Miranda Wilcox,John D. Young,2014-04-15 Winner of the Best Anthology Award from John Whitmer Historical Association Latter day Saints have a paradoxical relationship to the past even as they invest their own history with sacred meaning celebrating the restoration of ancient truths and the fulfillment of biblical prophecies they repudiate the eighteen centuries of Christianity that preceded the founding of their church as apostate distortions of the truth Since the early days of Mormonism Latter day Saints have used the paradigm of apostasy and restoration in their narratives about the origin of their church This has generated a powerful and enduring binary of categorization that has profoundly impacted Mormon self perception and relations with others Standing Apart explores how the idea of apostasy has functioned as a category to mark define and set apart the other in Mormon historical consciousness and in the construction of Mormon narrative identity The volume s fifteen contributors trace the development of LDS narratives of apostasy within the context of both Mormon history and American Protestant historiography They suggest ways in which these narratives might be reformulated to engage with the past as well as offering new models for interfaith relations This volume provides a novel approach for understanding and

Shoemaker, 2024-07-09 The lead essay in this book is the first effort to approach the historical figure of Muhammad in a manner comparable to the investigations that biblical scholars have made in the effort to recover the historical figure of Jesus Using comparable methods and approaches this study demonstrates that despite a widely held belief that Islam was born in the full light of history we in fact know considerably less about both Muhammad and the beginnings of Islam than we do about the historical Jesus and the beginnings of Christianity Also included are republications of four previously published essays dealing with such topics as the Qur an s status as a late ancient biblical apocryphon the relation between the Jerusalem Temple and the Holy House revered by the Qur an and the imminent eschatology of the Qur an and the early Islamic tradition God in Post-Christianity Lenart Škof, 2024-11-01 God in Post Christianity combines Eastern and Western influences into a dazzling survey of the contemporary theological landscape Reading the age of the Spirit as the age of the Breath the book argues for a material elemental and sensory theology of God following the death of the ontotheological God of metaphysics Drawing inspiration equally from Irigaray and Feuerbach it offers a vision of God that is both feminist and humanist a divine becoming for humanity a sacred alliance with Nature By presenting and analyzing the modern philosophies of Hegel Schelling and Merleau Ponty as well as such contemporary figures as John Caputo and Catherine Keller and by drawing on unexpected forgotten or neglected sources such as Vedic poetry and American Mormonism and figures such as Averroes and Amalric of B ne the book makes an original argument about God that resonates with currents in new materialism comparative theology and affect theory Both speculative and mythopoetic it is intended to forge a way forward for humanity to achieve the intersubjective and
