Moved by Love Mary D. Sheriff, 2008-10-30 In eighteenth century France the ability to lose oneself in a character or scene marked both great artists and ideal spectators Yet it was thought this same passionate enthusiasm if taken to unreasonable extremes could also lead to sexual deviance mental illness even death Women and artists were seen as especially susceptible to these negative consequences of creative enthusiasm and women artists doubly so Mary D Sheriff uses these very different visions of enthusiasm to explore the complex interrelationships among creativity sexuality the body and the mind in eighteenth century France Drawing on evidence from the visual arts literature philosophy and medicine she portrays the deviance ascribed to both inspired men and women But while various mythologies worked to normalize deviance in male artists women had no justification for their deviance For instance the mythical sculptor Pygmalion was cured of an abnormal love for his statue through the making of art He became a model for creative artists living happily with his statue come to life No happy endings though were imagined for such inspired women writers as Sappho and Heloise who burned with erotomania their art could not quench Even so Sheriff demonstrates the perceived connections among sexuality creativity and disease also opened artistic opportunities for creative women took full advantage of them Brilliantly reassessing the links between sexuality and creativity artistic genius and madness passion and reason Moved by Love will profoundly reshape our view of eighteenth century French culture Love Among the Archives Helena Michie,2015-09-18 Part biography part detective novel part love story and part meditation on archival research Love Among the Archives is the story of two literary critics attempts to track down Sir George Scharf the founding director of the National Portrait Gallery in London famous in his day and strangely obscure in our own The Mystery of an Old Master Painting Madonna of Divine Love Painting by Raffaello Sanzio Da Urbino Carla N.,2016-12-19 The Mystery of the Madonna of Divine Love is written with the purpose of clarifying the story believed for centuries of a painting on wood created in 1518 by a pupil of Raffaello Raphael although everybody knew that the master had painted the original on canvas in 1514 Unfortunately the original disappeared for 471 years from the time of the 1544 Vasari description to 2015 and until there is an exhibit side by side of the two paintings there will be only this story to reveal the truth The Love of David and Jonathan James E. Harding,2016-04-08 Were David and Jonathan gay lovers This very modern question lies behind the recent explosion of studies of the David and Jonathan narrative Interpreters differ in their assessment of whether 1 and 2 Samuel offer a positive portrayal of a homosexual relationship Beneath the conflict of interpretations lies an ambiguous biblical text which has drawn generations of readers from the redactors of the Hebrew text and the early translators to modern biblical scholars to the task of resolving its possible meanings What has not yet been fully explored is the place of David and Jonathan in the evolution of modern Western understandings of same sex relationships in particular how the story of their relationship was read alongside classical narratives such as those of Achilles and Patroclus or Orestes and Pylades The Love of David and Jonathan explores this context in detail to argue that the story of David and Jonathan was part of the process by which the modern idea of homosexuality itself emerged A is for Archive Matt Wrbcian,Blake Gopnik,Neil Printz,2019-01-01 Showcasing the artist s vast and personal archive this carefully researched book unveils an eclectic selection of objects including artworks fashion photographs and ephemera everything from Autograph to Zombies Selected Letters of Vernon Lee, 1856-1935 Sophie Geoffroy,Amanda Gagel,2020-09-16 Vernon Lee was the pen name of Violet Paget 1856 1935 a prolific author best known for her supernatural fiction and her radical polemics. She was also an active letter writer whose correspondents include many well known figures in fin de siècle intellectual circles across Europe. However until now no attempt has been made to make these letters widely available in their complete form. This multi volume scholarly edition presents a comprehensive selection of her English French Italian and German correspondence compiled from more than 30 archives worldwide that reflect her wide variety of interests and occupations as a Woman of Letters and contributor to scholarship and political activism. Letters written in a language other than English have been expertly translated by scholars Sophie Geoffroy from the French Crystal Hall from the Italian and Christa Zorn from the German. The edition focuses on those letters concerning the writing ideas and aesthetics that influenced Lee's articles books and stories. Full transcriptions of some 500 letters covering the years 1856-1935 are arranged in chronological order along with newly written introductions that explain their context and identifies the recipients friends and colleagues mentioned. Since scholarship on Lee's critical and creative output is still in the beginning stages these letters will serve a purpose to students and researchers in a number of academic fields. In this second volume covering the years 1885-1889 the 421 assembled letters follow Violet Paget Vernon Lee in her early thirties. Recovering from the stinging reception of her first novel and from Annie Meyer's death she turns to essay writing on aesthetics and ethics and ghost stories. After Mary Robinson's engagement to marry French orientalist Prof Darmesteter she travels to Spain Gibraltar and Tangiers and briefly falls under the spell of the Orient. She also takes a liking to Scotland and many of her close friends are Scottish Alice Callander Lady Archie Janey Sevilla Archibald Campbell and so is her future partner Clementina Anstruther Thomson. The letters reflect the expansion of her subject matter from cultural studies art history and aesthetic philosophy. Her charity work in hospitals in Florence and her readings in Political Economy lead her thinking towards social reform and political issues. Her brother's mental illness and her own breakdown bring about an awareness of body and mind balance and a taste for outdoor pursuits mountaineering bicycling horse riding swimming and for experimental psychology rotating mirrors hypnosis and therapies hydrotherapy. The Pagets move away from the city center of Florence into the Villa Il Palmerino then in the countryside where both Eugene and Vernon recover. Correspondents include Lee's parents Matilda and Henry Ferguson Paget her step brother poet Eugene Lee Hamilton English poetess Mary Robinson English poet Robert Browning British novelist and journalist Ellen Mary Abdy Williams British social reform activist and editor Percy William Bunting Irish journalist and activist Frances Power Cobbe Irish scholar and novelist Bella Duffy British eugenicist Karl Pearson British publisher William Blackwood Scottish writer Robert Louis Stevenson American novelist Henry James American connoisseur and arts patron Isabella Stuart Gardner French translator and critic Marie Thérèse Blanc Thérèse Bentzon Lady Louisa Wolseley Irish historian and activist Alice Stopford Green Italian Countess Angelica Pasolini Rasponi Italian poet writer and critic Enrico Nencioni Italian novelist essayist and critic Mario Pratesi Italian editor and man of letters Francesco Protonotari Italian painter Telemaco Signorini

Theft: A Love Story Peter Carey, 2010-12-09 Narrated by the twin voices of the artist Butcher Bones and his damaged two hundred and twenty pound brother Hugh Theft A Love Story once again displays Peter Carey s extraordinary flair for language Ranging from the rural wilds of Australia to Manhattan via Tokyo it is a brilliant and moving exploration of art fraud friendship and redemption Listening to Stone Hayden Herrera, 2015-04-21 Throughout the twentieth century Isamu Noguchi was a vital figure in modern art From interlocking wooden sculptures to massive steel monuments to the elegant Akari lamps Noguchi became a master of what he called the sculpturing of space But his constant struggle as both an artist and a man was to embrace his conflicted identity as the son of a single American woman and a famous yet reclusive Japanese father It s only in art he insisted that it was ever possible for me to find any identity at all In this remarkable biography of the elusive artist Hayden Herrera observes this driving force of Noguchi s creativity as intimately tied to his deep appreciation of nature As a boy in Japan Noguchi would collect wild azaleas and blue mountain flowers for a little garden in front of his home

As Herrera writes he also included a rock to give a feeling of weight and permanence It was a sensual appreciation he never abandoned When looking for stones in remote Japanese quarries for his zen like Paris garden forty years later he would spend hours actually listening to the stones scrambling from one to another until he found one that spoke to him Constantly striving to take the essence of nature and distill it Noguchi moved from sculpture to furniture and from playgrounds to sets for his friend the choreographer Martha Graham and back again working in wood iron clay steel aluminum and of course stone Throughout his career Noguchi traveled constantly from New York to Paris to India to Japan forever uprooting himself to reinvigorate what he called the keen edge of originality Wherever he went his needy disposition and boyish charm drew women to him yet he tended to push them away when things began to feel too settled Only through his art now seen as a powerful aesthetic link between the East and the West did Noguchi ever seem to feel that he belonged Combining the personal correspondence of and interviews with Noguchi and those closest to him from artists patrons assistants and lovers Herrera has created an authoritative biography of one of the twentieth century s most important sculptors She locates Noguchi in his friendships with such artists as Buckminster Fuller and Arshile Gorky and in his affairs with women including Frida Kahlo and Anna Matta Clark With the attention to detail and scholarship that made her biography of Gorky a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize Herrera has written a rich meditation on art in a globalized milieu Listening to Stone is a moving portrait of an artist compulsively driven to reinvent himself as he searched for his own essence of sculpture
