Metafigurative Strategies of Narration Michał Choi ski confronts the often paradoxical and excessive elements of southern literature focusing on dominant narrative modes and representation strategies in works produced from the early 1930s to the late 1950s With renewed attention to renderings of the gothic and grotesque Choi ski argues that modernist literature from the U S South often deploys the trope of hyperbole which escalates contrasts and disrupts the sense of the normal By focusing on how writers processed the South via narratives of hyperbolic excess Southern Hyperboles explores a mode of comprehension forged from the tensions of a segregated patriarchal society driven by racial and social decorum Moving chronologically Choi ski traces distinct manifestations of hyperbolic metalogic in the works of seven authors Katherine Anne Porter William Faulkner Lillian Smith Katherine Du Pre Lumpkin Tennessee Williams Flannery O Connor and Harper Lee The mode of hyperbole identified by Choi ski relies on a clash of opposites along with the rapid intensification of disharmonious ideas pushed to extremes leading to an ultimate break in established decorum The shock produced by hyperbole generates a momentary state of confusion that soon dissipates allowing recipients to reach a new understanding of their surrounding world Melding an innovative use of rhetorical theory with fine grained analysis of literary texts Southern Hyperboles elucidates contradictory and interlocking issues related to memory social trauma grotesquerie and troubled mythologies that permeate the U S South
