The Penguin New Writing John Lehmann, 1946      A Day's Pleasure and Other Tales Nigel Heseltine, 2023-05-25 A restless shape shifter from the mysterious Welsh Marches Heseltine was as elusive in his idiosyncratic writing as in his extraordinary globetrotting life It is good to have his work briefly pinned down in this groundbreaking collection for closer inspection Professor M Wynn Thomas Ceredigion a place of anarchy and farce of the grotesque and the slapstick of tragedy and violent comedy where the local hunt is disrupted by a camel riding hero where the town hall burns down as the town cheers a place haunted by grotesque revenants from the First World War This is the world of Nigel Heseltine's short stories fantastic fictions which lampoon and lament the slow decline of the once powerful squires and landowners of mid Wales the very Montgomeryshire of which Heseltine 1916-1995 formed a part      The Love-charm of Bombs Lara Feigel, 2013-07-09 A portrait of World War II era London by five literary volunteers documents their experiences as ambulance drivers firefighters and other civilian aids through the course of a single night in September 1940 20 000 first printing      The Birmingham Group Robin Harriott, 2022-10-14 The focus of this study is the collective of writers known variously as the Birmingham Group the Birmingham School or the Birmingham Proletarian Writers who were active in the City of Birmingham in the decade prior to the Second World War Their narratives chronicle the lived experience of their fellow citizens in the urban manufacturing centre which had by this time become Britain's second city Presumed guilty by association with a working class literature considered overtly propagandistic formally conservative or merely the naive emulation of bourgeois realism their narratives have in consequence suffered undue critical neglect This book repudiates such assertions by arguing that their works not only contrast markedly with other examples of working class writing produced in the 1930s but also prove themselves responsive to recent critical assessments seeking a more holistic and intersectional approach to issues of working class identity      Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature. Volume Xxvi. 1946 ,      Literature of the 1940s: War, Postwar and 'Peace' Gill Plain, 2013-09-10 A groundbreaking re-reading of the literary response to a decade of trauma and transformation This study undoes the customary division of the 1940s into the Second World War and after Instead it focuses on the thematic preoccupations that emerged from writers' immersion in and resistance to the conflict Through seven chapters Documenting Desiring Killing Escaping Grieving Adjusting and Atomising the book sets middlebrow and popular writers alongside residual modernists and new voices to reconstruct the literary landscape of the period Detailed case studies of fiction drama and poetry provide fresh critical perspectives on writers as diverse as Margery Allingham Alexander Baron Elizabeth Bowen Keith Douglas Henry Green Graham Greene Georgette Heyer Alun Lewis Nancy Mitford George Orwell Mervyn Peake J B Priestley Terence Rattigan Mary Renault Stevie Smith Dylan Thomas and Evelyn Waugh Key Features Detailed and theoretically informed case studies of canonical writers such as Bowen Orwell Greene and Waugh Case studies and critical re-evaluations of popular genre writers and forgotten writers      'Modernist' Women Writers and Narrative Art K. Wheeler, 1994-08-16 This book is an examination of the fiction of Edith Wharton Willa Cather Kate Chopin Jean Rhys Stevie Smith Katherine Mansfield and Jane Bowles with a view to clarifying the narrative strategies these women adopt to establish in varying degrees a critique of realism and its hidden dualistic patriarchal assumptions about life literature and society While examining the literary conventions and the innovations of various texts Kathleen Wheeler is careful to respect the particularity and individuality of each of these writers      pericles ,      Reading London in Wartime William Cederwell, 2017-11-06 Reading London in Wartime Blitz the People and Propaganda in 1940s Literature presents an expansive variety of writers and genres including non fiction and film approaches to build a comprehensive social picture of the atmosphere during wartime London From blitz and austerity to the nagging insistency of propaganda this volume examines the representation of London in wartime and early post war literature through each writer s unique perspective on the pressures of 1940s city life Exploring the use of London imagery this book considers how literature redirects attention to individual subjective experience at a time of enforced co operation uniformity and community Unlike government information films and news broadcasts which often used London to prop up prevailing clich s and stereotypes and encouraged patriotic support for the war literature had the freedom to express more recalcitrant truths London writing of the 1940s was not a literature of opposition or dissent but in offering more nuanced depictions of the period it was a counterweight to propaganda and the general war temperament In writing the city becomes a more complex place no longer the easy symbol of defiance and stoicism of the shared sacrifice of ration book and war work      British Romantic Art and the Second World War Stuart Sillars, 1991-06-18 An examination of the ways in which the artists and writers of the 1940s developed and extended approaches from earlier English romanticism to provide a direct and compassionate response to the reality of contemporary destruction      The Years of Anger Andy Croft, 2020-05-01 Randall Swingler 1909 67 was arguably the most significant and the best known radical English poet of his generation A widely published poet playwright novelist editor and critic his work was set to music by almost all the major British composers of his time This new biography draws on extensive sources including the security services files to present the most detailed account yet of this influential poet lyricist and activist A literary entrepreneur Swingler was founder of radical paperback publishing company Fore Publications editor of Left Review and Our Time and literary editor of the Daily Worker later becoming a staff reporter until the paper was banned in 1941 In the 1930s he contributed several plays for Unity Theatre including the Mass Declamation Spain the Munich play Crisis and the revues Sandbag Follies and Get Cracking In 1936 MI5 opened a 20 year long file on him prompted by a song he co wrote with Alan Bush for a concert organised to mark the arrival of the 1934 Hunger March into London During the Second World War Swingler served in North Africa and Italy and was awarded the Military Medal for his part in the battle of Lake Comacchio His collections The Years of Anger 1946 and The God in the Cave 1950 contain arguably some of the greatest poems of the Italian campaign After the war

Swingler was blacklisted by the BBC Orwell attacked him in Polemic and included him in the list of names he offered the security services in 1949 Stephen Spender vilified him in The God That Failed The book will challenge the Cold War assumptions that have excluded Swingler's life and work from standard histories of the period and should be of great interest to activists scholars and those with an interest in the history of the literary and radical left *ANNUAL BIBLIOGRAPHY OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE.
