The Philadelphia Negro A Social Study:

The Philadelphia Negro William Edward Burghardt Du Bois, 1899 The Philadelphia Negro W. E. B. Du Bois, 2010-11-24 In 1897 the promising young sociologist William Edward Burghardt Du Bois 1868 1963 was given a temporary post as Assistant in Sociology at the University of Pennsylvania in order to conduct a systematic investigation of social conditions in the seventh ward of Philadelphia The product of those studies was the first great empirical book on the Negro in American society More than one hundred years after its original publication by the University of Pennsylvania Press The Philadelphia Negro remains a classic work It is the first and perhaps still the finest example of engaged sociological scholarship the kind of work that in contemplating social reality helps to change it In his introduction Elijah Anderson examines how the neighborhood studied by Du Bois has changed over the years and compares the status of blacks today with their status when the book was initially published The Philadelphia Negro W. Bois,2010-01-01 Originally published in 1899 The Philadelphia Negro is a sociological study of the blacks living in Philadelphia in 1896 7 Du Bois was hired by the University of Pennsylvania to conduct the study under what some believe to be false pretenses Some suspect that the study was meant by those funding it to show how the black community was responsible for a number of problems within the city The report they received however was of quite a different nature The Philadelphia Negro was the first sociological study of black urban Americans ever conducted It detailed their lives their social structures their education their marriages and their jobs The study sought to illuminate ways in which philanthropy could help the people living in Philadelphia s Seventh Ward It did not presume as many people did at the time that blacks lived in poor conditions due to an innate weakness in their race This scholarly work serves as an excellent reference for students of history and sociology The Philadelphia Negro William E. The Philadelphia Negro W. E. B. Dubois,2015-07-21 Excerpt from The Philadelphia Negro A Social Study In November 1897 I submitted to the American Academy of Political and Social Science a plan for the study of the Negro problems This work is an essay along the lines there laid down and is thus part of a larger design of observation and research into the history and social condition of the transplanted Africans The opportunity of making this particular study was due to the initiative of Miss Susan P Wharton a Philadelphia woman active in practical social reform and to the interest and generosity of Dr Charles Custis Harrison Provost of the University of Pennsylvania and other citizens of Philadelphia The Department of Finance and Economy Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania had the general oversight of the work and I am under many obligations to the professors in that department for assistance and counsel Especially am I indebted to Dr Samuel McCune Lindsay Assistant Professor of Sociology for aid advice and sympathy without which the work could hardly have been brought to a successful close I must also express the general sense of obligation which I feel toward the Negroes of Philadelphia and especially toward those of the Seventh Ward for their broad minded attitude toward an inquiry which was at best a prying into private affairs About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
