The Pelican History Of Medieval Europe:

The Pelican History of Medieval Europe Maurice Keen, 1976 The Pelican History of Medieval Europe Maurice Hugh Keen, 1978 The Pelican History of Medieval Europe M. H. Keen, 1971 First published in 1968 under title A history of medieval Europe Includes index Bibliography p 329 338 The Pelican History of Medieval Europe Bea Girvan-Brown, Maurice Hugh Keen, The Oxford History of Medieval Europe George Holmes, 2001 Covering a thousand years of history this volume tells the story of the creation of Western civilization in Europe and the Mediterranean Now available in a compact more convenient format it offers the same text and many of the illustrations which first appeared in the widely acclaimed Oxford Illustrated History of Medieval Europe Written by expert scholars and based on the latest research the book explores a period of profound diversity and change focusing on all aspects of medieval history from the empires and kingdoms of Charlemagne and the Byzantines to the new nations which fought the Hundred Years War The Oxford History of the Medieval World also examines such intriguing cultural subjects as the chivalric code of knights popular festivals and the proliferation of new art forms and the catastrophic social effect of the Black Death The Pelican History of Medieval Europe Maurice Hugh Keen, 1976 The History of Medieval Europe Maurice Keen, 1991-09-12 Tribal wars the Crusades the growth of trade and the shifting patterns of community life as villages grew into towns and towns into sizeable cities Papal Victories 100 years war and Christendom The Origins of the Western Legal Tradition Ellen Goodman, 1995 Ellen Goodman uses extensive extracts from original writings to highlight the main themes of the Western legal tradition The strength of the book is its clear focus on the heart of the tradition constitutionalism representative institutions and rule by law Goodman links Christianity to its origins in Greek philosophy and Judaism She delves into the position of the Roman Church as the tenuous Dark Ages conduit Feudalism lives and dies and the common law and parliament emerge The author accurately and vividly charts the main currents avoiding both the shoals and the myriad tributaries and so enables readers to have a clearer and deeper understanding of our present legal system Selections from the 'Carmina Burana' , 2007-04-26 This is a selection from the 13th century collection of secular Latin poems Some are serious eg Crusade poems but the majority are light including many love poems A number of items from the Carmina are well known as text for Carl Orff's Scenic Cantata A Short History of Europe Antony Alcock, 2016-01-20 Antony Alcock's A Short History of Europe offers a straightforward meticulously researched account one which provides the student with clear and detailed analysis Future generations of undergraduates and postgraduates alike will have cause to be grateful for a stimulating introduction to a major area of European studies J E Spence Associate Fellow Royal Institute of International Affairs Alcock examines the historical development of Europe from the Greek city states through to the 1992 Maastricht Treaty on European integration He also analyses the rise of Christianity the contributions of the Roman and Byzantine Empires the rivalry between the Papacy and Holy Roman Empire and the consequences for the rise of states European domination of the world following the voyages of discovery continental royal absolutism and British political liberty the impacts of the French and Industrial Revolutions the two world wars the integration process since 1945 and the collapse of the Soviet Union China and the West to 1600 Steven Wallech, 2016-02-23 A comparative history of Chinese and Western Civilization from the dawn of agriculture to the dawn of modernity in Europe China and the West to 1600 explores the factors that led to the divergent evolution of two major cultures of the ancient world and considers how the subsequent developments saw one culture cling to tradition even as the other failed to do so inadvertently setting the stage for the birth of the Modern Era An accessible and inventive comparative history suitable for all students at the college level as well as general readers Compares the history of Chinese civilization with Western civilization from the rise of agriculture to the dawn of the modern period Explores the ways in which Western failures in the Middle Ages after the Roman Empire's collapse and China's successes in the same period laid the groundwork for each culture's divergent path in the modern period Makes meaningful connections between cultures and over time through the use of themes such as agriculture philosophy religion and warfare and invasion Bridges the gap between antiquity and modernity looking at many factors of the global Middle Ages that influenced the development of the modern world Features a timeline maps endnotes and complete index Marriage, a History Stephanie Coontz, 2006-02-28 Just when the clamor over traditional marriage couldn't get any louder along comes this groundbreaking book to ask What tradition In Marriage a History historian and marriage expert Stephanie Coontz takes readers from the marital intrigues of ancient Babylon to the torments of Victorian lovers to demonstrate how recent the idea of marrying for love is and how absurd it would have seemed to most of our ancestors It was when marriage moved into the emotional sphere in the nineteenth century she argues that it suffered as an institution just as it began to thrive as a personal relationship This enlightening and hugely entertaining book brings intelligence perspective and wit to today's marital debate The Middle Ages Mikael Eskelner, When we talk about the Middle Ages we talk about a historical period that extends from the 5th century to the 15th century Ten centuries of history that begins with the fall of the Roman Empire of the West in the year 476 A D and that is terminated at the end of the fifteenth century in 1492 with the discovery of the American continent The Middle Ages was a period of European history that left deep traces on the continent Marked by important historical events the beginning and end of this period was marked by major cultural political religious social and economic changes becoming one of the most fascinating periods in history At the Dawn of Modernity David Levine, 2001-02-19 Looking at a neglected period in the social history of modernization David Levine investigates the centuries that followed the year 1000 when a new kind of society emerged in Europe New commercial routines new forms of agriculture new methods of information technology and increased population densities all played a role in the prolonged transition away from antiquity and toward modernity At the Dawn of Modernity highlights both top down and bottom up changes that characterized the social experience of early modernization In the former category are the Gregorian Reformation the imposition of feudalism and the development of centralizing state formations Of equal importance to Levine s portrait of the emerging social order are the bottom up demographic relations that structured everyday life because the making of the modern world in his view also began in the decisions made by countless men and women regarding their families and circumstances Levine ends his story with the cataclysm unleashed by the Black Death in 1348 which brought three centuries of growth to a grim end

Confession Jeremy Tambling,1990 Early Medieval Europe 300-1050 David Rollason,2014-05-22 The centuries following the collapse of the Roman Empire saw extraordinary change across Western Europe in institutions social structure rural and urban life religion learning scholarship and art This innovative textbook provides students coming to the study of Early Medieval Europe for the first time with the conceptual and methodological tools to investigate the period for themselves It identifies major research questions and historiographical debates and offers guidance on how to engage with and evaluate the major documentary sources and the evidence of art history and archaeology Ideally structured to support courses and classes in Medieval European history the book s features include Over 50 carefully selected maps and illustrations accompanied by explanatory commentary Detailed guidance on further reading with research questions to aid understanding Timelines and maps to orientate the reader in each chapter An extensive companion website providing practical study guidance reference materials and access to further primary sources Offering a road map to the rich written and non written sources for this period and the exciting recent scholarship this book is an essential guide for any student wishing to gain a deeper level of understanding and greater confidence in creative and independent historical thought

The Far-Farers Victoria Clark,2003-01-01 The author of Why Angels Fall follows the odyssey of Thorvald an eleventh century Viking Christian who left his Icelandic homeland to make an epic journey to Jerusalem offering an intriguing study of western Christendom at a time of dramatic changes in Western Europe and the Holy Land

Aging and the Aged in Medieval Europe University of Toronto. Centre for Medieval Studies. Conference,1990 Monarchies 1000-2000 W. M. Spellman,2004-04-01 Monarchies 1000 2000 surveys a form of government whose legitimacy rests not on voluntary consensus but on age old custom heredity and or religious sanction Global in scope and comparative in approach W M Spellman s survey establishes connections between monarchy as idea and practice in a variety of historical and cultural contexts across a millennium when the system was without serious rival Spellman examines the intellectual assumptions behind different models of monarchy tracing the ways in which each of these assumptions shifted in response to historical factors While no human institution has retreated as rapidly in the modern period monarchy s remarkable longevity invites us to weigh the significance of hierarchy subordination and dependence as constants of the human experience Poetry, Space, Landscape Chris Fitter,1995-04-20 Social and historical theory of the conceptualisation of space from ancient times to the Renaissance
