The Phantom 30 40 1969:

The Phantom 30 - 40 [1969] Charlton Comics Lee Falk, 2014-08-15 Probably the best known of all Phantom comics in the U S A this series of 73 colour comics was published between Nov 1962 and Jan 1977 under three different publishers The series began under the Gold Key label published by K K Publications as a quarterly 12c comic With issue 11 in 1965 the series changed to a bi monthly In 1966 the release schedule returned to a quarterly basis and only lasted two more issues before the first change of publisher occurred In total there were 17 Phantom comics with the Gold Key label All sported beautiful painted covers by George Wilson Three of these covers are reported to have been painted by another unknown artist 5 12 13 Most of the stories were adaptations of original Lee Falk newspaper strip stories with new artwork by Bill Lignante King Features Syndicate became the new publisher of The Phantom comics releasing their first issue in September 1966 under the King Comics label They continued the numbering sequence from the Gold Key series labelling this issue 18 It was published as a 12c bi monthly until issue 23 in mid 1967 when it changed to a monthly schedule Issue 28 was the last to be published under the King Comics label cover price 15c only 6 issues into the monthly schedule Of the 11 Phantom comics published by King all but one of the stories were illustrated by Bill Lignante The first two issues contained adaptations of older Lee Falk stories and thereafter the stories were original Issue 25 contained a story entitled The Cold Fire Worshippers which was reprinted from the Italian comics series American Adventures published by Fratelli Spada and drawn by Senio Pratesi The cover artwork on the first three of these comics were by Bill Lignante while all others appear to have been lifted directly from panels of Sy Barry s newspaper strips The reigns of The Phantom comic were picked up again over a year later February 1969 by Charlton Press using the Charlton Comics label They continued with the same numbering sequence but skipped 29 and began with 30 This first issue featured uncredited artwork but the covers and all but two of the stories in the next year of bi monthly issues were by Jim Aparo Issue 33 was the first to contain a story by Pat Boyette and Bill Lignante was brought back to illustrate his last Phantom story which appeared in 35 From issue 39 onwards August 1970 the cover and story artwork was exclusively by Pat Boyette With only a handful of exceptions each issue then contained three 7 page stories The art and stories during this period can best be described as woeful Despite a considerable volume of negative feedback from readers Charlton persisted with Pat Boyette until 59 in December 1973 The declining sales must have struck a nerve with Charlton who d changed their name to Charlton Publications after 56 and the comic was revived six months later in 60 as The New Phantom In their search for new artists and writers Charlton first relied on stories from the Italian publisher Fratelli Spada before introducing us to the work of Don Sherwood and more notably Don Newton In total Don Newton contributed six beautifully illustrated 22 page stories 67 68 70 71 73 74 complete with painted cover artwork plus the cover for 69 Sales improved but not enough to save the flagging title The last issue of The Phantom comic was 74 in January 1977 A complete index of the individual stories in each issue of Charlton Comics is available HERE An analysis of the circulation data and the cover price builds an interesting picture of how this series eventually failed Cover price for the series commenced at 12c and was raised to 15c from 34 20c from 46 25c from 60 and finally 30c from 70 this was common for all American comics at the time At the same time the number of comics being printed was gradually falling but at a lesser rate than the number that were being sold This graph shows what happened By 1976 the paid circulation was less than 40% compared with a peak of 65% in 1965 Not even the brilliant efforts of Don Newton were enough to save the title the damage had already been done Simply put the editors at Charlton were too slow to make the necessary corrections The Phantom was subsequently absent from American newsstands at least in comic book form for the next 10 years Issue Publisher Date 1 17 Gold Key Comics Nov 1962 Jul 1966 18 28 King Comics Sep 1966 Dec 1967 30 74 Charlton Comics Feb 1969 Jan 1977

Isodose Atlas Gy. Németh, H. Kuttig, 2012-12-06 When compiling the present atlas our aim has been to provide the practising radiotherapist with a handbook which would help him to plan the radiation therapy of tumours of individual organs Apart from a few exceptions all isodose charts in this atlas show dose distributions resulting from external irradiation Combination of external irradiation with intra cavitory radium therapy is presented in the treatment of carcinoma of the uterine cervix in which case the two techniques are complementary Thd immense material of the pertinent literature could naturally not have been included in the atlas As a result of scrupulous selection the isodose charts shown may not invariably be the optimum ones and some of them may not be the most modern However the usefulness of the information they provide has made us to keep them all the same We did not intend to change the original charts in any way and standardization of the isodoses was not undertaken Radiation parameters are given in the figure captions and if available information has also been provided on the phantoms used by the authors Naturally the isodoses presented will not automatically apply to all situations and all apparatuses without due attention to the individual patient Jnd technical details such as penumbra and source diameter They merely serve as a starting point and will help to save time and work during treatment planning also with the computer

The Worst-Kept Secret Avner Cohen, 2010-10-26 Israel has made a unique contribution to the nuclear age it has created with the tacit support of the United States a special bargain with its bomb Israel is the only nuclear armed state that keeps its bomb invisible unacknowledged opaque It will only say that it will not be the first to introduce nuclear weapons to the Middle East The bomb is Israel's collective ineffable the nation's last taboo This bargain has a name in Hebrew it is called amimut or opacity By adhering to the bargain which was born in a secret deal between Richard Nixon and Golda Meir Israel creates a code of nuclear conduct that encompasses both governmental policy and societal behavior The bargain lowers the salience of Israel's nuclear weapons yet it also remains incompatible with the norms and values of liberal democracy It relies on secrecy and opacity It infringes on the public right to know and negates the notion of public accountability and oversight among other offenses Author of the critically acclaimed Israel and the Bomb Avner Cohen offers a bold and original study of this politically explosive subject Along with a fair appraisal of the bargain's strategic merits Cohen provides a critique of its antidemocratic faults Arguing that the bargain has become increasingly anachronistic he calls for a reform in line with domestic democratic values as well as current international nuclear norms Most important he believes the old methods will prove inadequate in dealing with a nuclear Iran Cohen concludes with fresh perspectives on Iran Israel and the effort toward global disarmament Oil and Gas Field Code Master List 2003 , Oil and Gas Field Code Master List ,1982

Farm 1968-1978 Constance Lewallen,Steve Seid,2004-03-01 This richly illustrated book created to accompany the traveling exhibition of the same name provides a fascinating critical overview of Ant Farm the radical architecture collective that brought us Cadillac Ranch Media Burn and The Eternal Frame Established by several young renegade architects in 1968 Ant Farm was a collaborative art and design group eager to bring to its practice a revolutionary spirit more consistent with the times Its vision encompassed creations for a nomadic lifestyle including inflatable structures and radical environments that culminated in projects such as the organically appointed House of the Century and the unrealized aquatic edifice The Dolphin

Embassy Ant Farm 1968 1978 explores the sweeping career of this inspired and inspiring visionary collective as its architectural projects broadened to embrace a range of undertakings that challenged the visual architecture of image icon and power Constance Lewallen provides an in depth anecdotally rich interview with founding members Chip Lord Doug Michels and Curtis Schreier An essay by Michael Sorkin gives the multivalent cultural context for Ant Farm s radical architecture Steve Seid takes a comprehensive look at Ant Farm s influential videotapes Caroline Maniaque s Searching for Energy details the group s inflatable structures in relationship to contemporaneous architects working in a similar vein The catalog also includes a substantial excerpt from Chip Lord s 1976 meditation on car culture with a new epilogue a graphically playful timeline recounting Ant Farm s essential art projects and a rich montage of images and ephemera capturing the humor originality and prescience of this feisty enterprise A joint publication with the Berkeley Art Museum Oil and Gas Field Code Master List 2000 ,
