The Plagiarist A Novella:

The Plagiarist Hugh Howey, 2011-02-24 Adam Griffey is living two lives By day he teaches literature At night he steals it Adam is a plagiarist an expert reader with an eye for great works He prowls simulated worlds perusing virtual texts looking for the next big thing And when he finds it he memorizes it page by page line by line word for word And then he brings it back to his world the real world and he sells it But what happens when these virtual worlds begin to seem more real than his own What happens when the people within them mean more to him than flesh and blood What happens when a living thing falls in love with someone who does not actually exist

The Plagiarist Benjamin Cheever, 1994 Arthur Prentice the son of an aging alcoholic much celebrated American author embarks on a career with a prestigious magazine and finds himself undertaking an emotional journey that transforms every facet of his life An ingenious first novel Newsweek Plagiarizing the Victorian Novel Adam Abraham, 2019-08-22 Views the Victorian novel through the prism of literary imitations that it inspired

The Novel in Anglo-German Context, 2021-10-18 The Novel in Anglo German Context focuses on cross currents and affinities between fiction written in English and fiction written in German and the thirty one contributors to this volume cover authors from the eighteenth century to the present day The essays collected in this book approach the theme of Anglo German cultural cross fertilisation from a number of different angles These include the reception and translation of foreign authors the examination of exile writers the comparative exploration of aspects which are crucial to both German Austrian or Swiss and British or Irish novelists at a given point in time the fictional depiction of the respective other culture Anglo German images in the novel as well as the role of the novel in the curricula of German and British secondary education The topics chosen by the contributors offer stimulating views on a wide range of subject areas and the volume is essential reading for anyone with a broad interest in Anglo Irish German Austrian and Swiss literature the development of fiction as well as Anglo German literary and cultural relations

Creative Writing Colin Bulman, 2007 All writers are familiar with terms like plot suspense conflict and character They may be less familiar with intertextuality anachrony and fabula and they may be even less confident in achieving the effects these terms refer to This book defines fictional techniques and guides the potential writer in their use It may spark off ideas for stories and novels and provide first aid for failing stories A story's ending may come as a surprise to the reader suspense may have the reader on the edge of the seat and conflict may lead to unbearable excitement It is the job of the writer to create these effects and this book illustrates how it is done The book is for students doing creative writing in higher education at A level and it will be essential reading for anyone interested in writing fiction Contents Definitions of over 200 terms and techniques to do with fiction writing How to achieve fictional effects Literary examples of the techniques described Characteristics of genre as well as literary fiction Basic but essential techniques such as writing dialogue and using figures of speech Definitions of major terms used in publishing

French Novels and the Victorians Juliette Atkinson, 2017-07-27 Despite the warnings of critics and moral leaders French novels were widespread in Victorian culture How did Victorian readers gain access to them How were the novels supposed immorality debated and challenged And how far did the influx of French novels raise questions and anxieties about the literary and commercial value of the English novel Reality Simulation in Science Fiction Literature, Film and Television Heather

Duerre Humann,2019-08-27 In recent decades science fiction in both print and visual media has produced an outpouring of story lines that feature forms of simulated reality These depictions appear with such frequency that fictional portrayals of simulated worlds have become a popular sci fi trope one that prompts timeless questions about the nature of reality while also tapping into contemporary debates about emerging technologies In combination with tech driven tensions this study shows that our collective sense of living in politically uncertain times also propels the popularity of these story lines Because of the kinds of questions they raise and the cultural anxieties they provoke these fictional representations provide a window into contemporary culture and demonstrate how we are reassessing our own reality The Plagiarism Allegation in English Literature from Butler to Sterne R. Terry,2010-09-22 Contributing to the growth in plagiarism studies this timely new book highlights the impact of the allegation of plagiarism on the working lives of some of the major writers of the period and considers plagiarism in relation to the emergence of literary copyright and the aesthetic of originality Everything and Less Mark McGurl,2021-10-19 National Book Critics Circle Award Finalist Best Book of Fall Esquire and a Most Anticipated Book of 2021 Lit Hub What Has Happened to Fiction in the Age of Platform Capitalism Since it was first launched in 1994 Amazon has changed the world of literature The Everything Store has not just transformed how we buy books it has affected what we buy and even what we read In Everything and Less acclaimed critic Mark McGurl explores this new world where writing is no longer categorized as high or lowbrow literature or popular fiction Charting a course spanning from Henry James to E L James McGurl shows that contemporary writing has less to do with writing per se than with the manner of its distribution This consumerist logic if you like this you might also like has reorganized the fiction universe so that literary prize winners sit alongside fantasy romance fan fiction and the infinite list of hybrid genres and self published works This is an innovation to be cautiously celebrated Amazon s platform is not just a retail juggernaut but an aesthetic experiment driven by an unseen algorithm rivaling in the depths of its effects any major cultural shift in history Here all fiction is genre fiction and the niches range from the categories of crime and science fiction to the more refined interests of Adult Baby Diaper Lover erotica Everything and Less is a hilarious and insightful map of both the commanding heights and sordid depths of fiction past and present that opens up an arresting conversation about why it is we read and write fiction in the first place Novel Subjects Leah A. Milne,2021-07-01 How does contemporary literature contend with the power and responsibility of authorship particularly when considering marginalized groups How have the works of multiethnic authors challenged the notion that writing and authorship are neutral or universal In Novel Subjects Leah Milne offers a new way to look at multicultural literature by focusing on scenes of writing in contemporary works by authors with marginalized identities These scenes she argues establish authorship as a form of radical self care a term we owe to Audre Lorde who defines self care as self preservation and an act of political warfare In engaging in this battle the works discussed in this study confront limitations on ethnicity and nationality wrought by the institutionalization of multiculturalism They also focus on identities whose mere presence on the cultural landscape is often perceived as vindictive or willful Analyzing recent texts by Carmen Maria Machado Louise Erdrich Ruth Ozeki Toni Morrison and more Milne connects works across cultures and nationalities in search of reasons for this recent trend of depicting writers as characters in multicultural texts Her exploration uncovers fiction that embrace unacceptable or marginalized modes of storytelling such as plagiarism historical revisions jokes and lies as well as inauthentic invisible and unexceptional subjects These works ultimately reveal a shared goal of expanding the borders of belonging in ethnic and cultural groups and thus add to the ever evolving conversations surrounding both multicultural literature and self care

The Wondrous Story of Anesthesia Edmond I Eger II, Lawrence J. Saidman, Rod N. Westhorpe, 2013-09-14 Edited and written by an international who's who of more than 100 authors including anesthesiologists nurse anesthetists bench scientists a surgeon and representatives of industry this text provides a comprehensive history of anesthesia unique in its focus on the people and events that shaped the specialty around the world particularly during the past 70 years when anesthesia emerged from empiricism and developed into a science based practice

Perspectives on Plagiarism and Intellectual Property in a Postmodern World Lise Buranen, Alice Myers Roy, 1999-04-23 Contributors offer many definitions and facets of plagiarism and intellectual property demonstrating that if defining a supposedly simple concept is difficult then applying multiple definitions is even harder creating practical problems in many realms

Novel Arguments Richard Walsh, 1995-09-29 Novel arguments argues that innovative fiction by which is meant writing that has been variously labeled postmodern metafictional experimental extends our ways of thinking about the world and rejects the critical consensus that under the rubrics of postmodernism and metafiction homogenizes this fiction as autonomous and self absorbed Play self consciousness and immanence supposed symptoms of innovative fiction's autonomy are here reconsidered as integral to its means of engagement The book advances a concept of the argument of fiction as a construct wedding structure and content into a highly evolved and expressive experimental form Close readings of five important innovative novels by Donald Barthelme Ishmael Reed Robert Coover Walter Abish and Kathy Acker show how they articulate matters of substance social engagement and ideological currency by virtue of the act of innovation Walsh deftly argues for a new understanding of fictional cognition at the theoretical level and in an act of great critical creativity discards altogether the flattening totalities of received postmodern formulations

New Approaches to the Twenty-First-Century Anglophone Novel Sibylle Baumbach, Birgit Neumann, 2019-12-20 This book discusses the complex ways in which the novel offers a vibrant arena for critically engaging with our contemporary world and scrutinises the genre's political ethical and aesthetic value Far reaching cultural political and technological changes during the past two decades have created new contexts for the novel which have yet to be accounted for in literary studies Addressing the need for fresh transdisciplinary approaches that explore these developments the book focuses on the multifaceted responses of the novel to key global challenges including migration and cosmopolitanism posthumanism and ecosickness human and animal rights affect and biopolitics human cognition and anxieties of inattention and the transculturality of terror By doing so it testifies to the ongoing cultural relevance of the genre Lastly it examines a range of 21st century Anglophone novels to encourage new critical discourses in literary studies

The Victorian Novel and the Problems of Marine Language Matthew P. M. Kerr, 2022 This book shows how prose writers in the Victorian period grappled with the sea as a setting a shaper of plot and character as a structuring motif and as a source of metaphor Wilkie Collins, Vera Caspary and the Evolution of the Casebook Novel A.B. Emrys, 2014-01-10 Wilkie Collins was one of the most popular novelists during England's Victorian era While Collins scholarship has often focused on social issues this critical study explores his formal ingenuity particularly the novel of testimony constructed from epistolary fiction trial reports and prose monologue His innovations in form were later mirrored by Vera Caspary who adapted The Woman in White three times into contemporary fiction This text explores how the formal dialogue between Collins and Caspary has linked sensation fiction with noir thrillers and film noir The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W. Shaffer, 2011-01-18 This Encyclopedia offers an indispensable reference guide to twentieth century fiction in the English language With nearly 500 contributors and over one million words it is the most comprehensive and authoritative reference guide to twentieth century fiction in the English language Contains over 500 entries of 1000-3000 words written in lucid jargon free prose by an international cast of leading scholars Arranged in three volumes covering British and Irish Fiction American Fiction and World Fiction with each volume edited by a leading scholar in the field Entries cover major writers such as Saul Bellow Raymond Chandler John Steinbeck Virginia Woolf A.S. Byatt Samuel Beckett D.H. Lawrence Zadie Smith Salman Rushdie V.S. Naipaul Nadine Gordimer Alice Munro Chinua Achebe J.M. Coetzee and Ngũgĩ Wa Thiong'o and their key works Examines the genres and sub genres of fiction in English across the twentieth century including crime fiction Sci-Fi chick lit the noir novel and the avant garde novel as well as the major movements debates and rubrics within the field such as censorship globalization modernist fiction fiction and the film industry and the fiction of migration diaspora and exile

Harper's Monthly Magazine, 1908 Important American periodical dating back to 1850 A History of the French Novel (to the Close of the 19th Century) George Saintsbury, 1919

The Gothic Novel and the Stage Francesca Saggini, 2015-08-12 In this ground breaking study Saggini explores the relationship between the late eighteenth century novel and the theatre arguing that the implicit theatricality of the Gothic novel made it an obvious source from which dramatists could take ideas Similarly elements of the theatre provided inspiration to novelists
