African Literature as Political Philosophy Mary Stella Chika Okolo,2013-07-04 The politics of development in Africa have always been central concerns of the continent s literature Yet ideas about the best way to achieve this development and even what development itself should look like have been hotly contested African Literature as Political Philosophy looks in particular at Achebe s Anthills of the Savannah and Petals of Blood by Ngugi wa Thiong o but situates these within the broader context of developments in African literature over the past half century discussing writers from Ayi Kwei Armah to Wole Soyinka M S C Okolo provides a thorough analysis of the authors differing approaches and how these emerge from the literature She shows the roots of Achebe s reformism and Ngugi s insistence on revolution and how these positions take shape in their work Okolo argues that these authors have been profoundly affected by the political situation of Africa but have also helped to create a new African political philosophy

An Islamic Reformation? Michaelle Browsers,Charles Kurzman,2004-01-01 This book brings together scholars with expertise in modern Islamic thought and practice to evaluate the claim that we are witnessing something tantamount to an Islamic Reformation by assessing the character and impact of various reformist trends in the Middle East and North Africa Each chapter also addresses the question of the appropriateness and usefulness of comparisons between Christian and Islamic or Western and Eastern reformations

Specters of Liberation Martin J. Beck Matustik,Martin Beck Matu[ti]k,1998-03-19 Advocates a new existential and political coalition among critical and postmodern social theorists and among critical gender race and class theorists in dissent from the New World Order to raise specters of liberation and empower radical democratic change

Spiritual and Political Dimensions of Nonviolence and Peace David Boersema,Katy Gray Brown,2006 This book is a collection of philosophical papers that explores theoretical and practical aspects and implications of nonviolence as a means of establishing peace The papers range from spiritual and political dimensions of nonviolence to issues of justice and values and proposals for action and change

Peacemaking ,2021-10-25 Peacemaking includes a large array of activities from local to global attempts to attain peace It includes consideration of international interstate and intertribal conflict resolution communal personal and interpersonal social justice deterrence of the use of nuclear weapons design of international treaties that prevent war or other forms of international conflict disarmament international organizations that secure the order among nations and even from some points of view war As the 20th century drew to a close we have witnessed peacemakers trying to end ethnic cleansing reinstate justly elected political leaders and reach compromises in the ideological differences that perpetuate age old conflicts We also see peacemaking in our schools homes and workplaces Philosophers have long been interested in peacemaking in one form or another and philosophical accounts of peacemaking reflect the variety of perspectives methods and activities developed in pursuing peacemaking In some instances philosophers expand upon the situations activities and methods of the peacemaker in the field The essays in this volume propose some theoretical arguments for various aspects of peacemaking offer nonmilitary alternatives to war and discuss practical examples of peacemaking in daily life The contributors analyze power relations language social groupings and distribution of resources At times they draw insight from social and historical models of conflict and conflict resolution This collection of essays on peacemaking aims to enlighten contemporary social and political discussions and contribute to achieving the ever challenging goal of peace

Institutional Violence Deane Curtin, Robert Litke, 2022-05-20 Violence can be physical and psychological It can characterize personal actions forms of group activity and abiding social and political policy This book includes all of these aspects within its focus on institutional forms of violence Institution is also a broad category ranging from formal arrangements such as the military the criminal code the death penalty and prison system to more amorphous but systemic situations indicated by parenting poverty sexism work and racism Violence is as complex as the human beings who resort to it its institutional forms pervade our relational lives We are all participants in it as victims and perpetrators The chapters in this book were written in the hope that violence can be explicated even if not fully understood and that such clarification can help us in devising less violent forms of living even if it does not lead to its total abolition The studies bring new aspects of violence to light and offer a number of suggestions for its remedy

The Routledge Handbook of Pacifism and Nonviolence Andrew Fiala, 2018-02-02 Interest in pacifism an idea with a long history in philosophical thought and in several religious traditions is growing The Routledge Handbook of Pacifism and Nonviolence is the first comprehensive reference designed to introduce newcomers and researchers to the many varieties of pacifism and nonviolence to their history and philosophy and to pacifism s most serious critiques The volume offers 32 brand new chapters from the world s leading experts across a diverse range of fields who together provide a broad discussion of pacifism and nonviolence in connection with virtue ethics capital punishment animal ethics ecology queer theory and feminism among other areas This Handbook is divided into four sections 1 Historical and Tradition Specific Considerations 2 Conceptual and Moral Considerations 3 Social and Political Considerations and 4 Applications It concludes with an Afterword by James Lawson one of the icons of the nonviolent American Civil Rights movement The text will be invaluable to scholars and students as well as to activists and general readers interested in peace nonviolence and critical perspectives on war and violence

The Rule of Law in an Era of Change George J. Andreopoulos, Rosemary L. Barberet, Mahesh K. Nalla, 2018-07-16 This forward thinking volume examines the rule of law from a global perspective in the context of a growing array of transnational challenges and threats As the United Nations UN notes the rule of law constitutes the basis on which fair and just societies are built The contributions to this volume provide insights to several emerging debates about what the rule of law means in the modern era of warfare and of massive and systematic human rights violations that call for robust and transparent accountability mechanisms and processes The authors of this work examine several controversial topics including The growing use of drones and the morality of long distance use The UN Security Council s evolving counterterrorism policies and practices Victims Rights and the effort to provide meaning and justice to victims and survivors of terrorism The relationship between the International Criminal Court ICC and Truth and Reconciliation Commissions TRCs The effectiveness of the international criminal justice process overall with an eye to procedural fairness and justice This timely work will be of interest to researchers in criminal justice particularly with a focus on counter terrorism and international justice as well as international law human rights and international studies Fanon Lewis Gordon,T. Denean Sharpley-Whiting,Renee T. White,1996-08-30 The wide range of disciplines represented here enables the volume to stand as a contextualizing work in Fanon studies It contains new original essays on Africana philosophy the human sciences dialectical humanism women of color studies neocolonial and postcolonial studies violence and tragedy Conflict Transformation Rhea A. DuMont,,Tom H. Hastings,Emiko Noma,2013-02-28 Seeking to expand the transformative aspect of conflict resolution the contributors to this edited collection have focused on gathering scholarship from under represented voices and viewpoints in the field the emerging discipline Most mainstream conflict resolution seems to look either at interpersonal conflict or international conflict without much focus on the differing individuals and social structures involved These peer reviewed essays add significant findings to those gaps in the literature The editors and contributors are perhaps not coincidentally mostly women and people of color whose voices are often absent from other collections Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Dancing with Iris Ann Ferguson,Mechthild Nagel,2009-10-08 Iris Marion Young was a world renowned feminist moral and political philosopher whose many books and articles spanned more than three decades She explored issues of social justice and oppression theory the phenomenology of women s bodies deliberative democracy and questions of terrorism violence international law and the role of the national security state Her works have been of great interest to those both in the analytic and Continental philosophical tradition and her roots range from critical theory Habermas and Marcuse and phenomenology Beauvoir and Merleau Ponty to poststructural psychoanalytic feminism Kristeva and Ingaray This anthology of writings aims to carry on the fruitful lines of thought she created and contains works by both well known and younger authors who explore and engage critically with aspects of her work The essays include personal remembrances as well as a last interview with Young about her work The essays are organized into topic areas that are of interest to students in advanced undergraduate and graduate courses in ethics feminist theory and political philosophy A Guide to Asian Philosophy Classics Puqun Li,2012-07-19 This book guides readers through ten classic works of Asian philosophy Several major schools of Eastern thought are discussed including Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism Daoism Taoism and Chan Zen The author connects the ideas of these schools to those of Western philosophy thereby making the material accessible to people who are unfamiliar with the cultures and intellectual traditions of Asia A wide range of important topics are addressed reality time self knowledge ethics human nature enlightenment and death

Peace Philosophy and Public Life Greg Moses, Gail Presbey, 2014-03-10 To a world assaulted by private interests this book argues that peace must be a public thing Distinguished philosophers of peace have always worked publicly for public results Opposing nuclear proliferation organizing communities of the disinherited challenging violence within status quo establishments such are the legacies of truly engaged philosophers of peace This volume remembers those legacies reviews the promise of critical thinking for crises today and expands the free range of thinking needed to create more mindful and peaceful relations With essays by committed peace philosophers this volume shows how public engagement has been a significant feature of peace philosophers such as Camus Sartre Dewey and Dorothy Day Today we also confront historical opportunities to transform practices for immigration police interrogation and mental health as we seek to sustain democracies of increasing multicultural diversity In such cases our authors consider points of view developed by renowned thinkers such as Weil Mouffe Conway and Martin Bar This volume also presents critical analysis of concepts for thinking about violence reconsiders Plato's philosophy of justice and examines the role of ethical theory for liberation struggles such as Occupy

The Moral Psychology of Compassion Justin Caouette, Carolyn Price, 2018-03-16 Compassion is widely regarded as an important moral emotion a fitting response to various cases of suffering and misfortune Yet contemporary theorists have rarely given it sustained attention This volume aims to fill this gap by offering answers to a number of questions surrounding this emotion These questions include What is the nature of compassion How does compassion differ from other emotions such as empathy pity or gratitude Is compassion a virtue Can we have too much compassion How does compassion influence other mental states desires motivations beliefs and intentions and behaviour How is compassion influenced by the environment Must compassion be deserved Can one be moral while lacking the capacity for compassion Compassion like other emotions has many facets biological social psychological and neural among others The contributors to this volume will draw on a variety of disciplines and methods in order to develop a more systematic and comprehensive understanding of this often neglected moral emotion
